Children's services group

The need for a dramatic revision of public and government social service planning priorities and for massive human service aid to the suburbs are among the recommendations of the Children's Services Steering Group set up for Halton Region. The group will hold its inaugural meeting this Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at regional headquarters on Highway 25 just north of the QEW. Guest speakers from Metro Toronto and a slide show on current children's services are among items on the agenda. For more information, contact Justine Howarth of the region's planning department at 878-8113.
