

CARNEGIE COURSE BEGINS

The first session in the Dale Carnegie self-improvement course began last Wednesday at the North Halton Golf and Country Club. Instructor Teresa Holland is shown here talking about the importance of remembering people's names. The course is being sponsored in Halton Hills by The Herald. (Herald photo)

Local teachers off to meeting

Teachers from the Georgetown District Christian School will be attending the annual Ontario Christian School Teachers' Association convention in Hamilton tomorrow and Friday. The theme of the convention is "Behold I make all things new", and is designed to encourage Christian teachers to face the challenge of teaching every subject from a Christian framework. Members of the association teach in over 65 schools in the Ontario Alliance of Christian Schools.

Prices rising

Large increases in food prices can be expected unless steps are taken to deal with the problems facing Canadian farmers, Ontario Federation of Agriculture (OFA) Second Vice-President, Frank Wall, warned today.

Wall explained that inflation of input costs and depressed prices in some commodities have led to a major reduction in farm incomes. Late last year, Statistics Canada forecast the decrease would be 40 per cent in Ontario.

"In the 1970's, a farmer produced enough food for himself and 12 other people. Today, he feeds over a hundred. However, that will not continue if farmers do not earn enough to continue to invest in improving their own efficiency."

He concluded, farmers either will have to receive better incomes from the marketplace or be protected from inflation by the government. He said the OFA is preparing a detailed set of proposals which will be released later this year.

Meet candidates

The Georgetown Area Ratepayers Association would like to remind everyone of its upcoming "meet the candidates" meetings next Wednesday (October 29) in the Glen Williams town hall, October 30 at Georgetown and District High School and November 5 at Centennial Public School. All meetings will begin at 8 p.m. and will feature guest Mayor Pete Pomeroy (unchallenged in this election).
