Former warden charged

Former Halton County warden Jim Swanborough was charged by Hamilton-Wentworth regional police last week with 35 counts of fraud and fraudulent conversion involving more than $500,000, Mr. Swanborough, a practising Oakville lawyer, will appear in Hamilton provincial court Nov. 6 after being released last Tuesday on a $50,000 surety. Most of the charges against the accused allege that mortgage investment money was diverted for alternative purposes without the knowledge of investing clients.
