The Catholic Women's League's October Meeting was presided over by Siena Van Hoekelen, 1st Vice President, in the absence of Helen Callaghan, President, who was ill in hospital. Everyone present expressed the hope that Helen would soon be well again.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by Trudy Edwards, Secretary, together with a letter from the Red Cross, which help in the kitchen during the Blood Donor Clinic were asked to be present at the Red Cross Awards Night to receive a citation in appreciation of their work.

A convenor was requested to organize the December

Annual Christmas Dinner Meeting, and Anne Lysy kindly volunteered. The Dinner Meeting will be held at The Cellar on Main Street, Georgetown, Dec. 9.

Some members volunteered to bake for a meeting Oct. 22, which was held in the Rectory Basement to discuss the planning for the upcoming C.W.L. Diocesan Convention to be held next June in Burlington. The Georgetown C.W.L. will be organizing the Registration of the Convention.

Refreshments were served after the close of the meeting and some members worked on Christmas Decorations which will be on sale at the Annual Christmas Bazaar to be held Nov. 8, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Holy Cross Auditorium on Maple Avenue.

The Norval W.I. held its annual dessert Luncheon and Eùchre at the Norval Community Centre Sat. afternoon.

The Norval Room was tastefully decorated in the Halloween Theme.

Jean May welcomed the ladies and led in singing the Institute Grace. After partaking of the delicious dessert table, eùchre was enjoyed, with 17 tables in play. Prize winners are as follows:

1st - Laura-Carter, Luena Campbell.

2nd - Lydia Boyce, Claris Dolson.

Other winners: Consolation - Betty Brownridge, Birthday - Eleanor Branch, Travelling -

Bird opened the meeting with the ode and collect. Secretary Mrs. J. Ruddell read last month's minutes and called the Roll, which was answered with "What I do or do not like about the W.I."

Mrs. Bob Alexander gave the district director's report and the District Day is Nov. 4 at Ligny Hall 12:30. The 4-H Achievement Day is Nov. 12 in E.C. Drury School, Milton.

A panel discussion led by Mrs. R. Alexander, assisted by Marion Hunter and Mary Jane Wingfield, discussed the What, Where and Why of the W.I. They told of the start by Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless of the first Women's Institute, who had a brilliant mind for reading and studying, in February 1897. By the year 1904, 104 branches were going well.

Marion Hunter then told of the Ashgrove W.I. which started in February 1926. Her mother, Mrs. Dick, was the first president.

Mary Jane then told of the wonderful work done by the 4-H girls and the different courses they have learned and she also read the names of all the leaders who have taught them. Now we are looking to the future in the Eighties. Where are we heading? Let us choose properly.

Mrs. F.M. Wilson gave the courtesies and after singing the Queen meeting closed with a social hour.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. George Smith, Sr. and family in the sudden passing of a husband and father.
