

Obituary

Former
postmaster

Former Georgetown postmaster Thomas Harold Marshall died Oct. 27 at Georgetown Memorial Hospital. He was 71.

Mr. Marshall was born in Terra Cotta, the son of William George Marshall and Bertha May Robinson. He attended school in Terra Cotta and Georgetown.

Mr. Marshall moved to Georgetown in 1921, and from there to Ottawa in 1940. He moved back to Georgetown in 1946.

Mr. Marshall worked first at Irwin and Goldham's Butcher Shop. He owned a small grocery store at the corner of King and Queen Streets in Georgetown which he sold to Norman Hill. He went to work for the post office in 1938, and was postmaster from 1956 to 1973.

He married Dorothy May Ballantine November 11, 1931 at Georgetown United Church.

Mr. Marshall was a member of the Royal Canadian Postal Corporation Veterans' Association. He was a past member of the Lions Club, and a past member of the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce. He was a director of the Ontario Postmasters' Association Life Membership from 1957 to 1965.

Mr. Marshall joined the Active Canadian Postal Corporation in 1940 as a private and was promoted to Captain in June, 1944.

Mr. Marshall is survived by his wife and sons Paul Marshall and Thomas Marshall, and daughter Doris Goodiet, all of Georgetown.

He is also survived by sisters Hazel McMillan, and Ethel Terrance, both of Georgetown, and brothers Douglas Marshall of Georgetown and William Marshall of Tilsonburg.

He has six grandchildren, Grant and Scott Marshall, Shannon and Craig Marshall, and Thane and Faydra Goodiet.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Peter Barrow from the McClure-Jones Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Harold Blackwell of Brampton, Robert Ballantine of Toronto, Harry Green of Tilsonburg, Walter Bell of Guelph, Blake Inglis of Glen Williams and Delmer French of Georgetown. Interment was at Greenwood Cemetery.

'Volunteer'

'Volunteer' is the most welcome word in the dictionary for the Canadian Red Cross Society, and to the people whose lives are brightened regularly by the smiling face and helping hand of a Red Cross volunteer. There's no better time than now to join us as a Canadian Red Cross Corps volunteer-driver. Please to it now - you're badly needed!
