Fall trip to Ligny

By Mrs. JOHN BELLBODDY
Herald Correspondent

Well, it seems as if fall is here again; we are back to good old Standard Time again, Halloween is over and it was a grand night for the witches and ghosts to be out knocking on doors with their bags for trick or treat. Now it is November, a dark and dreary time, when everyone is rushing to get the outside jobs done and Mother Nature has put the shrubs and trees to sleep ready for the snow that will soon be coming. Last Tuesday, 11 of our Institute members attended the District Day at Ligny and enjoyed seeing the pictures of the different places around Germany.

Ballinafad

Piper leads cub pack in Remembrance service

By WINNIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
A very impressive and meaningful service was held at the Ballinafad Church for Remembrance Sunday. Virginia Hulme, director of the Georgetown Girls Pipe Band, was on hand for the opening of the Service. She led the way down the aisle of the church playing the bag pipes to the tune of "Amazing Grace" as the boys of the Ballinafad Wolf Cub pack followed with their Akela, Doug Wood and his wife, who also assists with the pack.

The Scripture lesson was read by Mr. Wood. Mrs. Wood then read the impressive poem, "Why I Wear a Poppy". Two minutes' silence was observed followed by the last post played by Mrs. Hulme. Mr. Wood then had a story for the children before they went to Sunday School classes.

Mr. Stiles had an interesting sermon as the topic was taken from the word "Grace". He said Grace was not written in the Bible as often as some other words but it did have a significant meaning. The old-time hymn, fit in well with the service.

The November meeting of the W.I. was held at the home of Eileen McEnery. It was the Education and Cultural Activities meeting. Grace McEnery being the convener. Music was the theme for the meeting.

The roll call was answered by each member repeating or singing a chorus from their favorite old song. They were in the right place for this, as there were many musical instruments in the home and an expert pianist to accompany those who had difficulties performing.

This part over with, the minutes and financial statement of the October meeting were given by the Secretary Treasurer. The President then conducted the business part of the meeting and there were many items to discuss.

Mrs. Jamieson gave an interesting report on the District Director's meeting she recently attended in Milton. The two delegates at the Area Convention each gave a report, and Lillie Given, who was one of those present at the pot luck luncheon for District Day Nov. 4, told of the beautiful pot luck meal and musical program which every one enjoyed.

In the time left for the program, Grace McEnery presided. The motto was given by Alma Sinclair "Music Hath Charm to Soothe the Savage Breast" short and to the point. Current events were given by Eileen McEnery.

Lillie Given chose Catharine McKinnon as the musical woman of the month. Grace McEnery gave the life of one of the greatest singers of our time, "Bing Crosby". The program ended on a musical note as Eileen McEnery played many different types of organ music which was a delight for all. A special time was held when Alma Sinclair and Ada Kirkwood assisted the hostess with the serving of a tasty lunch.
