

'Friends' visit pottery outlet

The Friends-in-Deed adult handicapped organization enjoyed a trip to Collingwood Oct. 16 to visit Blue Mountain Pottery and take a shopping tour.

A visit from Fergus handicapped organization was enjoyed Oct. 28 and prizes for Halloween costumes were given. The rest of the evening was spent in games and having fun. A delicious lunch was served by a committee in charge.

There will be a handicapped shopping afternoon at Stone Road Mall in Guelph from 1:15 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. Nov. 25.

The next meeting will be Nov. 25 at 7:30 p.m. at M.Z. Bennett Public School on Acton Boulevard in Acton, and a cordial invitation to attend is extended.

Handicapped swimming is open Sunday from 11 a.m. to noon at the McKenzie-Smith Middle School on Acton Blvd. All handicapped are welcome. For further information, call 853-2785 or 853-2324.

McDermid seeks more local jobs

Herald Special
Brampton-Georgetown MP John McDermid has complained that federal job programs have created employment for only 12 people in his constituency.

However, employment minister Lloyd Axworthy suggested in the House of Commons last week that the Tory MP be patient and await the results of departmental and parliamentary examinations of the job market.

Mr. McDermid argued that the minister "likes to put forward his programs to all of our problems but which provided only 12.25 jobs in my riding when there are 5,000 in my riding on unemployment insurance."

Declared 'war' in poor taste

Herald Special
Although it was only simulation, an announcement of war broadcast over loudspeakers at Milton district high school was too realistic for many of the students - and a school board official.

The announcement by principal Peter Gnish Nov. 10 told students that Canada and the United States had declared war on Iran and all men between the ages of 18 and 30 would have to register for military conscription.

Even though the 10-minute broadcast was a simulation, many students remained shaken even after they were told the broadcast, prepared with the help of seven theatrical students, was intended to make students more aware of the meaning of Remembrance Day.

"The portrayal was too realistic and somewhat in bad taste," Bill Lawson, vice-chairman of the Halton County board of education, said last week.

He said he had received a few phone calls from parents whose children were upset by it.

Lawson said he'd spoken with Gnish, who said he now realizes the production was too realistic and has prepared a statement for the students.

The incident was somewhat reminiscent of the famous War of the Worlds broadcast on Halloween in 1938, when Orson Welles created widespread panic by airing a radio drama version of H.G. Wells's story in which Martians invade Earth.
