Norval's Couples Club in service

Last Thursday night euchre at the Norval community Centre had seven tables in play. Prize winners were Muriel Miller, Martha Richardson, Frank George, Ruth Webb; Lone hand Pearl Burt; Lucky draw, courtesy of Webb's - Lorene Sanderson.

The Couples Club at Norval United Church took the service Sunday with Gordon Reid, president, giving the call to Worship.

Opening prayer and congregational prayer were taken by Anne Wilson and Gwyn Laidlaw, respectively. Three-part scripture and sermonette were taken by Rosie and Gord Laidlaw on "Caring and Sharing"; Lois and Ken Reid had "Work" as their theme and Mary and Jack Crawford spoke on "Human Dignity". All three were well taken, with the ladies reading the scripture and the men giving the address. Gwen Laidlaw told the children's story and the men's choir offered two numbers. The offering was taken by Glenn Laidlaw, Marilyn Smith, Ada Enman, and Noreen Van Leeuwen. Betty and Paul Johnson greeted everyone at the door, and George Smith pronounced the benediction.

Everyone enjoyed a buffet lunch after the service. Finagrove community Club had eight tables in play last Monday night. Prize winners were Marg Davidson, Isabel Thompson and Marie Murry (tied), Phil Laundry, Sid Fikema and Eileen Jackson (lucky draw by Webb's).

Ashgrove Colored lights of December

By Mrs. JOHN BELLBODDY Herald Correspondent

Now comes December, the magical month of the whole year, the time to bring out the red and green paper and bright tinsel. Soon homes will glow at night with colored lights, the time for families to share the joy of being together.

And of course, the most joyous symbol of gift-giving is Santa Claus. This jolly roly-poly gentleman sets the mood of happiness and good cheer at Christmas time. In France he is known as Pere Noel, in Italy as Las Befana and in Switzerland Christkindli, but boys and girls all over the world excitedly look for him on Christmas Day.

People complain how commercialized Christmas has become, how expensive gifts are, but the good feeling at Christmas will remain.

This is the darkest time of the year: darkness comes so early in the evenings and the mornings are slow giving us daylight.

All children brighten up the homes.

At morning, noon and night, And one good reason has to be They leave on every light.

Volunteer

"Volunteer" is the most welcome word in the dictionary for the Canadian Red Cross Society. Or to the people whose lives are brightened, regularly by the smiling face and helping hand of a Red Cross volunteer. There's no better time than now to join us as a Canadian Red Cross Corps volunteer-driver. Please do it now - you are badly needed!
