Jelinek praised

Halton MP Otto Jelinek has been praised by the Canadian Association for Free Expression for acting "laudably and legitimately" in attacking the Liberal government's motion of closure on debate over constitutional amendments Oct. 23. Association director Peeler expressed his appreciation for Jelinek's "courageous defence of parliamentary democracy and freedom of expression" in the face of Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau's "despotism".

YOUNGEST MEMBER

Bruce Beckett (left) was not only the sole newcomer to the Quarter-Century Club of the Abitibi Paper Mill at the firm's annual dinner Saturday, he is also the youngest member in the club. Mr. Beckett, shown here being congratulated by mill manager George Lockwood, went to work at the mill when he was 15 as a trimmer-helper.
