

Prize is cocktail party for top bowlers

Hillock's Catering, owned and operated by Blayne Hillock, has scheduled a $1,000 cocktail party for the Georgetown Men's Majors Bowling League Christmas Roll for this Monday night.

The first bowler who bowls a 450 single game or a 1,000 for a triple, with or without a handicap, wins the cocktail party. Several other prizes are donated by the league as well.

Some of the high average bowlers who appear to have the best chance at the prize are Colin Hicks 246, Henry Neutel 244, Ron McGowan 242, Jack Hillier 241, Jim Timleck 238, Stan Caron 236, Roger Gervais 235, Sam Holmes, 235, Gary Richardson 232 and Danny Scarborough 230.

A special thank you from the bowlers and executive is extended to Hillocks Catering and Blayne Hillock for offering this terrific prize. We certainly hope one of us wins it!

VISIT KENTUCKY

The Pembletons of Georgetown were among hundreds of visitors from outside the U.S. who visited Louisville, Kentucky's North American International Livestock Exposition last week. Now in its seventh year, the exhibition drew more than 100,000 people to view and purchase high bloodline stock.
