Heart attack at wheel?

A heart attack is believed to have caused the death of a Toronto man whose body was found in his car on Highway 401 just east of Trafalgar Road exit. Arthur Strauss, 64, of Hollis Street in Toronto, was found on the shoulder of the freeway Sunday. Police believe he pulled over when he became ill.

Library becomes desert

Be still, my thumping heart! Valentino creeps stealthily into Georgetown Jan. 9 for a showing of his silent movie classic "Son of the Shiek" at the public library. Sharing the bill with the silver screen's roguish romancer are Laurel and Hardy and some of their friends in "Leave 'Em Laughing". Showtime is 7 p.m. and admission is free.

Nutrition lecture

The University Women's Club of Georgetown is presenting a special lecture on Nutrition Jan. 6, featuring guest speaker Handy Croom, a dietitian at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. All are welcome to the 8:45 p.m. lecture at Sacre Coeur Church hall and admission is free.

Cancer Society draw

Midge Gourlay of McIntyre Crescent won an afghan in a draw conducted by the Canadian Cancer Society recently. Second prize of a pine cone wreath went to Norma Carlisle of Metcalfe Court. The afghan was crocheted by Val Stoddart, who is a member of the branch's activity group. Proceeds from the draw will be used to help local cancer patients.

Terra Cotta skiing

Cross-country skiing has begun at Terra Cotta Conservation Area. Skis can be rented on weekends, and special arrangements can be made for groups of 15 or more people to ski during the week. Bookings for skiing during the week can be made by contacting the Credit Valley Conservation Authority at 451-1615.

Optimists Yule draw

Ted Tyler was winner of first prize in the Acton Optimists Club Yule Log draw. H. Rinsina and Fred Sheppard won second and third prizes in the draw.

Sunflight Holidays
Canada's Number One Holidaymaker.
January Sale
(Save up to $440 per couple.)

The smart money travels in January.

In the hectic days before Christmas, hardly anyone ever thinks past Christmas. Result? Most people who book a holiday now, book it for February or March. Which makes January the smartest time to head south!

Beaches and hotels are less crowded in January. Service is more attentive in January. But most important, prices are lower in January!

Now add to that, Sunflight's January Sale Prices, and you can't beat our holiday values!

But hurry. At prices like these, the bargains won't last long!
