

1980 - THE YEAR IN PHOTOS

Now, that's entertainment!

Halton Hills benefitted this year, and will continue to benefit in years to come, from the dedicated efforts of the Nordic Studio for the Performing Arts. In addition to on-going courses and workshops such as the one above conducted by Marg Eggleton. The studio mounted two major productions this year. Glen Tarlin, left, starred in a production of George Bernard Shaw's "Dear Liar", and in T.S. Elliot's "Murder in the Cathedral".

Amateur thespians have every right to toast themselves looking back on the past year. Both Nordic Studios and Georgetown Little Theatre produced a number of fine plays, including G.L.T.'s "Relatively Speaking" in April and a joint G.L.T.-Nordic production of G.B. Shaw's "Great Catherine" during the Halton Hills Art Council's Summerfest '80 program in June. Michael McDonald, Joyce Holland, and Ron Hill (around table) acted in "Relatively Speaking" and Neville Workshop and Joe DeGuldicke kept the audience laughing in "Great Catherine".

The audience gathered at St. John's United Church May 27, enjoyed Norma Edwards' one-woman act entitled "The Women of Margaret Lawrence". Here, she plays Hagar, from Lawrence's "The Stone Angel".

Outfitted in the regalia of his native Ojibway ancestry, Gay-G-Zhee Blunse (High Flying Bird) fascinated an audience at a library-sponsored event at Cedarvale Park in April. The library has sponsored a variety of interesting lectures and activities for young and old alike last year.

Mississauga's Tuxedo Junction, a lovely quartet of harmonizers, entertained along with many other talented acts at the annual Hornby garden party, held in Mid-June this year.

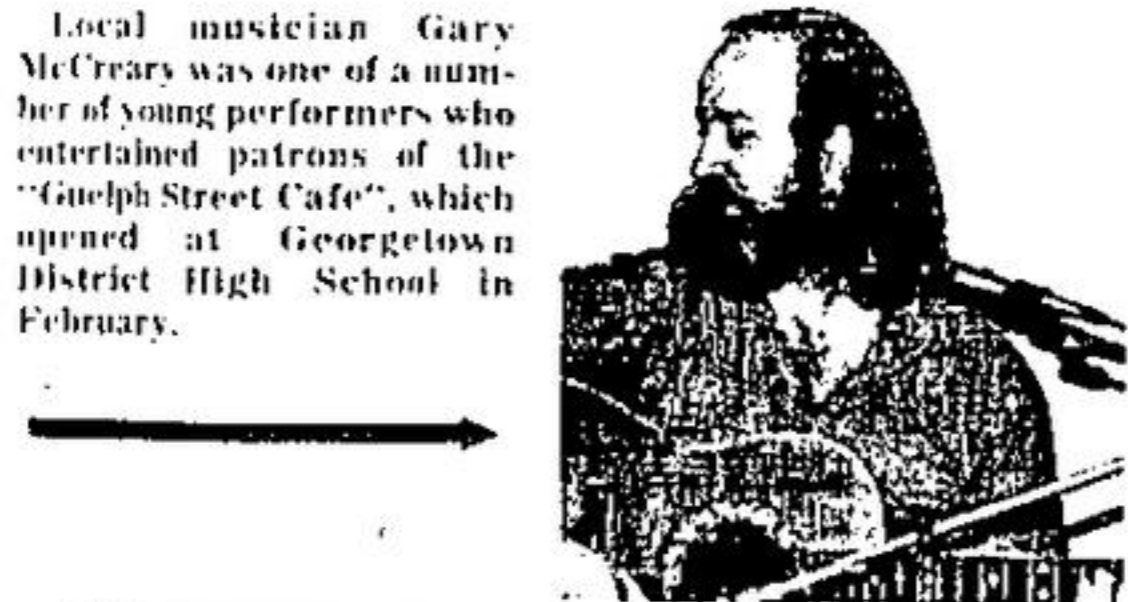

Ernie Coombs, better known to Canadian children as Mr. Dress-up, entertained a full house of happy fans at Holy Cross this year. The show was organized by Maple Nursery School, and was a virtual sell-out.

Students at George Kennedy Public School delighted family and friends with their undertaking of the musical "Oliver!" starring a cast of dozens of talented performers.

Local musician Gary McCreary was one of a number of young performers who entertained patrons of the "Guelph Street Cafe", which opened at Georgetown District High School in February.

Have you had a chance to COMPARE?

Really look at your TV Pictures.....

If you don't see good solid reception on every channel on your dial; if the pictures are snowy; if airplanes and passing cars and trucks create noise and picture breakup; if the colour is washed out — maybe it's time you end those frustrations and have Cable TV installed. Peace of mind, and the family will love you for it.
