John Roe to kick off Georgetown Little Theatre's $30,000 fund-raising drive for the new library-cultural centre last April. The drive has collected about two-thirds of its goal. Mayor Pomeroy, meanwhile, wins The Herald's "Diplomat of the Year award for personally donating $1,450 each to Acton's town hall restoration campaign and the library-cultural centre project.

This year was also the one in which Actonians revived Decoration Day after a two-year absence when it was dropped due to declining public interest. Mayor Pete Pomeroy, Lorne Pritchett of the Salvation Army, Father Leo Speagle, former councillor Ed Wood and Coun. Terry Grubbe joined the Acton Citizens Band during the June ceremonies which, for 25 years, honored those who died in combat during World War II.

Jaycee Doug Penrice clowned it up for a photograph with a fellow club member to promote the club's 25-hour Canada Day bike-athon to Ottawa. The eight participants helped raise a $1,000 for a high school bursary and, upon their arrival in Ottawa, presented Task Force on Canadian Unity chairman Jean-Luc Pepin with a special Canada Day commemorative plaque drafted by the local branch of the club.
