Hall Board meeting enjoys good turn-out

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Special

The annual meeting of the Ballinafad Community Centre was held Sunday afternoon. It was gratifying for the Hall board to see a very good attendance. There were about 40 present including Russell Miller representing Halton Hills Council, and Deputy Reeve, Jo Schneider of Erin township.

The newly elected officers are: Chairman - John Loughnan, Secretary - Martha Lewis, Treasurer - Dave Walker, Public Relations - Denny Shortill, Entertainment - Morley Shortill, Maintenance - Gerry Bergan, Members at Large - Bev Pattullo, Paul Metcalf and Jean McCutcheon.

It is the wish of the Hall board that much interest will be shown for the first meeting of the board, which is Jan. 14. The activities for the year will be planned. Suggestions from other organizations would be welcomed at this time.

The Community Centre is for the Community, so come out to this meeting and suggest what you think would be beneficial to both the young and the not so young people of the community.

Monday. The first day after a long holiday back to school is exciting for the youngsters since they get a chance to wear and show off all the new apparel they got for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kanusek have returned after spending the holidays in Texas.

Lois Kennedy is spending a few days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Burt and family, before leaving for her home in Edmonton.

There was a short congregational meeting after Church service Sunday to hear and discuss recommendations to report when committees from both Churches, St. Andrews in Georgetown, and Ballinafad, were to meet Sunday evening.

The results will be known at the annual congregational meeting Jan. 18 following the Church Service of Worship and luncheon served at the Church.

The New Year's Eve Dance at the Community Centre was well attended. A D.J. played the music for dancing, music to suit all couples, as there were the young teens down through middle aged and older who like to celebrate the old year out and the new year in. Lunch was provided and a happy time was spent by all.

With the holiday season over, it was back to school and back to work for most people.

The annual New Year's Eve party of the Norval United Church Couples' Club was celebrated at Stewarttown Hall with Gordon and Jean Reid co-chairing the evening.

Lunch committee of Garnet and Glen Laidlaw had charge of the lunch and tickets were handled by Lois and Ken Reid's group.

Lucky draws were won by Jean Dunlop, Garth Lawrence, Walter Ridley and Gord Laidlaw. A buffet luncheon finished off a lovely evening.

Entertaining on Christmas Day, Walter and Mary Hildley had as their guests, Mrs. Hlynah and her three children and brother-in-law, along with their daughters, Linda and her husband Paul Mewitt of Brampton, and Donna, who is home from Western University.

Earl and Anne Wilson entertained the Hildleys prior to their taking in the New Year's Eve Party.

The stately, timeless and the design details of the exterior re-create the tones of the ultimate New Classical home. The design details of the exterior re-create the tones of the ultimate New Classical home. The design details of the exterior re-create the tones of the ultimate New Classical home.

The wide, double door entry leads into a spacious reception hall and outdoor storage area, which contains a two-piece vanity bathroom, and which forms the gateway to the second level. From the foyer, traffic moves either naturally left, into the long rear hall leading dining room, combination, or forward and to the right into the large and convivial family room lounge. The living room features a raised hearth masonry fireplace and a wide projecting bay window. The separate dining area connects to the rear patio via sliding glass doors, for easy access to outdoor dining in fine weather.

A step-saving U configuration kitchen has open rear counter-top work surfaces, abundant cupboard storage and an excellent work triangle. Its central position between the dining room and the family room allows for excellent separation of formal dining and more casual family meals. A snack bar counter connecting to the family room could be developed, for those who prefer.

The large family room lounge has a second rear view window and a sliding glass door opening into the wide rear patio. It provides access to the family, utility room, laundry and contains the entry to the full basement.

All four bedrooms are positioned on the second level, around the two bathrooms. Each has excellent exposure for view and natural light and each has a large closet. The large master bedroom has a full walk-in closet and a three-piece ensuite bathroom with tub. Access to an enclosed luggage storage area under the eaves is provided through the master bedroom closet.

A full basement, with space for the future development of additional bedrooms or recreational facilities, and an enclosed two-car garage, complete this convenience features of this practical and high-style design.
