

Herald's hockey team of the week

Dave's BP coach Bob Fendley says his team is, "definitely looking forward to the playoffs". The team had a poor start at the beginning of the season with one of the reasons being the number of injuries. Last Sunday, Dave's BP defeated Royal Pizza Kings 5-0 in a high-spirited game. Fendley says his BP team will be tough in the playoffs and Norval will have to watch out, "because we're on the move".

Dave's BP and Royal Pizza battled to a 5-0 score last Sunday morning. Marty Weaven paced his BP teammates with three goals during the game. Ron Osborne picked up the shutout.

Minor atoms beat Milton

Memorial Arena in Milton was the scene of some exciting play-off hockey last Sunday. The Al Pihutti Minor Atoms won a squeaker over an inspired Milton squad but had to go into overtime to do it.

Milton struck first but Jeremy Felce netted one to tie it up. Before the end of the opening period, the hosts had the go-ahead goal. Georgetown tallied twice in the second to pull ahead 3-2 on markers by Brent Fresswood and Doug Kent.

In the third, Milton came from behind to knot the score three times. Alan Giray and Jason Knight, with the first of his hat trick, were the final frame marksmen. The hosts lifted their goalie and got the 5-5 equalizer with just 32 seconds left on the clock. Just moments before, Georgetown narrowly missed sailing the game away on two empty net opportunities.

The overtime period was a different story as the locals pumped in three in just three minutes ending the contest 8-5. Jason Knight took a pass from Jeremy Felce for what turned out to be the game winner - the first of his two overtime markers. The third goal was netted by Alan Giray.

Registering two assists were Chris McCarthy, Andrew Hoddinott, and Jeremy Felce. Singles were notched by Adam Bennett, John Brooker, Doug Kent, Brent Fresswood, Travis Gardner, Doug McDermott, and Chris Stoddart.

The series continues in Georgetown at Memorial Arena on Thursday Jan. 29 at 6:40.

Product pee wees win two

The Standard Product Pee-wees went two for three over recent days, losing to Orangeville and topping Flamboro and Ancaster.

At home to the big O the Pee-wees were outskated and allowed six goals while scoring three. Mike Teetzel opened from Danny Kent and Pat Braund followed by five straight from Orangeville. Brian Doherty netted the next two, one set up by Mark Fries with Orangeville scoring the final.

At Flamboro the majors won by a four goal margin with Mike Hurley notching four points as he scored two and set up Danny Kent and Pat Braund via Brian Doherty for the other.

Pat Braund had three points on an additional goal and assist. Dean Irvine opened the scoring from Gord Paterson and Jeff Sholdice while Mark Fries and Jon Hammer had assists. The final league game for the Pee-wees against Ancaster was a shooters bonanza as the locals simply overran the weaker competition and showed some of the form that won them last year's Tri-County championship.

The final score was 11-1. Scoring went like this: Brian Doherty had the hot-stick with three goals and two assists, Pat Braund, Jon Hammer and Neal White each had two goals and one assist, Mike Hurley had one goal and three assists in a fine effort, while Mike Teetzel had a single. Gord Paterson and Jeff Sholdice had two assists each, with one to Dean Irvine. Altogether a well played game for the red machine.

Bantams whip Flamboro

Last Tuesday the D.R.G. Major Bantams whipped Flamboro 12-2 in a fifty-five minute encounter with only six minor penalties throughout the game.

Defenceman Kent Falby lit the scoreboard at the 1:52 and 1:34 mark with shots from the point. Tom Forbes fired the third goal during the second period. In the third period, Catling and Richardson added two each with Webster, Wick-

Industrial hockey

Inglis earns shutout

Even without their first and second string goaltenders, Hollywood Tavern trounced Bracken's Restaurant last Sunday in Industrial league play.

When their first string goaltender didn't show, the goaltending duties were left up to defenceman Ray Inglis. Inglis is fifth leading scorer in the industrial league and has always been a defenceman. But that didn't stop Norval from supporting him in his shutout effort. They beat Bracken's 12-0.

Hollywood's Bert Osborne opened the scoring for his team on a pass from Dave Holmes five minutes into the game. Ian Syme added another from Larry Peterson and Brian Beaumont four minutes later to make the score 2-0.

In the second period Hollywood connected for five goals with Brian Beaumont and Bert Osborne leading the way with two goals a piece. Bob Landry scored the single from Bert Osborne at the 16:05 mark in the period.

Larry Peterson netted the first goal of the third from passes by Bob Landry and Bill Kirby to make the score 8-0. Doug Anderson stole a loose puck to score an unassisted goal mid-way into the period. Larry Peterson connected on a shot with help from Ian Syme and Brian Beaumont. Syme added the eleventh goal on a pass from Bert Osborne. Brian Beaumont scored the final goal from Larry Peterson at the 17:33 mark of the period.

Two players for Dave's BP were particularly hot last Sunday as they beat the Royal Pizza Kings 5-0. Dave's BP goalie Ron Osborne picked up a shutout and Marty Weaven came up with a hat trick to lead his team to victory.

Weaven opened the scoring for his team in the opening minute on passes from Larry Melton and Merel Hache. Doug Pemberton added another when he stole a loose puck and beat Pizza for a 2-0 score.

Marty Weaven scored his second goal with help from teammates Melton and Hache. Pete Fendley made it 4-0 at the mid-way point to increase Dave's BP lead.

In the third period Marty Weaven took his third goal against Pizza, again teaming with Melton and Hache assisting to end the scoring. Time of the last goal was 16:39.

During the Akers-Clark and United Rental match-up nine goals were divided among only four scorers as Akers edged Rental 5-4.

Doug Thompson led both teams in scoring with four goals for Akers-Clark while Denny Campbell and Brian McKenzie scored twice each to pace their team. Hal Hulme scored a single for Akers from Brian Hurley and Jim Blair.

Until the beginning of the second period United Rental led the game 3-0, but Akers came from behind with four consecutive goals, three by Thompson to take the lead 4-3 before Brian McKenzie could score an unassisted goal for Rental to tie the game at 4-4.

Doug Thompson scored the winning goal for Akers from Chris Milne and Dale Mieczanec at the 11:58 mark of the third period.

Lakers win over Celtic ladies team

The fourth-place Lakers beat their third-place rivals the Celtics 29-23 in basketball action for the ladies Jan. 20.

In a closely matched game, the Lakers were paced by the fine play of Diaga Zelek as she added 6 points for her team. Janice Gagne and Lynn Cartwright both found the range for 5 points as Dianne Mikoleit and Christine Bantering netted four points each.

Gale Cartwright and Sandra Chamberlain chipped in with two points each and Carrie Atkinson added a single.

High scorer for the Celtics was Pat Nesset as she picked up 12 points over the game. Sally Remedios counted for seven points. Jane Fogal and Betty Simonyi added two in the losing effort.

Spurs 46
Nuggets 35
The first place Spurs continued their winning ways when they outlasted the Nuggets 46-38. Janet McKay was the top shooter for the Spurs as she netted 13 points for her team. Wendy Brown contributed eight points for the evening while Hazel Reid added seven. Corrine Banderwetering found the range for six points while Mary Kelly added four. Ann Korzack and Nancy Shortill also had four.

Wendy Forsyth was the Nuggets sharpshooter as she netted 14 points for her team against the Spurs. Alice Ogden followed in team points with eight while Nancy Aldridge caught the rim for six.

Loraine Brown added six points for the Nuggets while Sandy Stansfield contributed four points.

The second place Knicks blasted the Bullets as they outscored their opponents 62-31. Barb Currie for the Knicks carried her team to victory with a tremendous 25 point output.

Sue Tesar and Sjanna Young contributed with eleven and nine points respectively. June Nicolson added seven points while Pat Mashingier netted six and Ruth Melady three.

Top scorer for the Bullets was Chung Kim with 13 points. Sandy Lewis caught the hoop for eight points while Linda Smith netted four. Debbie Boycott, Sandra Scholey and Kim Worrall each found the range for two.

Pat Nesset of the Celtics jumps for a basket in Ladies Basketball play last week. She managed 12 points in the game, but it wasn't enough to beat the Lakers who defeated Pat's team 29-23. (Herald photo)

Midget selects in first

By LUC BERTRAND
Herald Special

The "Norval Hollywood Tavern" Midget Selects held on to first place with one win and one tie last week. This continues their run of success that started with the championship of the Markham Midget Tournament and a win in an exhibition game over the "A" team Bramalea Jaycees.

They beat Bramalea 4-2 with two goals by Shawn Zuber, one by Jocelyn Boucher and one by Robert Boucher (all three in the same line). They tied against Milton 4-4 with three goals by each player of the Dehaas, Wallace and Pentesco line and an extra goal by Robert Boucher. Assists went to Pete MacKinnon, Mike Mitchell (2), John Dehaas, Ray Wallace and Jocelyn Boucher.

Finally, they won against the Orangeville Selects with goals from all three lines, two by Shawn Zuber, two by Ray Wallace, one by Jocelyn Boucher, one by Scott Pentesco and one by Barry Stone - Assists by Mike Mitchell, Mike Jones (2), Jocelyn Boucher and Shawn Zuber.

Fire safety beats Milton
The Georgetown United Fire Safety Minor Pee Wees finally beat Milton 2-0 in their fourth attempt at the top team in the Tri-County pee wee league. Georgetown is in third spot. Goalie Chris Pearson came up with a super game to earn the shutout. Craig Chantler and Mark Zebedee scored with an assist from Bill Herman. This game was an important win as Georgetown must now get past Dundas, then Milton in a two out of three series to enter the Ontario Playdowns.

Chrysler bantams

In their first loss in league play, the Georgetown Chrysler Bantams were outscored by Orangeville 5-3.

Goals by Georgetown came from Steve Luckas, Derek Roy, Rod Wilson with assists from Darrin Juby and Robbie Wilkes.

One of the reasons for the Georgetown loss was due to the sickness of four of the players on the team.
