Minor midgets beat Milton

In playoff action the Labelmasters Minor Midgets beat Milton 3-1 in the first game and tied Milton 4-4 in the second game played last Sunday.

In the first game the midgets received solid goaltending from Shawn Glassford. He kept Milton to only one goal as Georgetown's defencemen went to work scoring two of the three goals from the blue line.

Even though Georgetown was short-handed for most of the second period due to penalties they did a superb job of keeping Milton off the scoreboard until the third period.

Georgetown 4 Milton 4

Goals for Georgetown were scored by Jay Barwell, Glen Baker and Kevin Gillispie with assists by Rick Greenwood, Mike Stone, Mike Steward and Jay Barwell.

Against Milton last Sunday the Labelmasters fought Milton to a 4-4 tie on goals by Brian McQueen, Howie Oram, with Glen Baker scoring both overtime goals for the minor midgets. Both of Baker's goals were unassisted.

It was a very exciting game as Georgetown was leading 2-1 late in the third period. With 46 seconds left in the game Milton tied the score.

Then in a 10 minute overtime period Milton scored twice but Georgetown kept pressing and scored at 2:12 and with 10 seconds remaining to tie the game. Each team took a point. Three stars were Glen Baker, Jay Barwell and Blake Harrison.
