Atoms vs. Fort Erie

By JOHN FELCE
Herald Special

Last Sunday in Fort Erie, the Al Pilluti Minor Atoms had to play catch-up hockey for most of the opener in the second round of the O.M.H.A. playdowns. Georgetown came from behind to edge their Fort Erie hosts 4-3 and take a one game lead in the best of five series.

The locals were a little slow to warm up and get into the game and as a result found themselves down 2-0 at the end of the first period. Fort Erie had tallied at 9:26 and at 7:48.

Jeremy Felce, unassisted, put Georgetown on the scoreboard at 9:50 of the middle frame. Fort Erie netted another one at 5:49 to regain their two goal lead but at 5:08 Adam Bennett, from Alan Giray, narrowed the gap.

The Minor Atoms had a strong third period. Brent Presswood was set up by Travis Gardiner and Doug Kent for the equalizer at 14:42. After many fine end to end rushes by both squads, Sean Cotton passed to Adam Bennett, who popped in the game winner at 6:25.

Good crowd for Butterworth benefit

The well-attended Brad Butterworth benefit game last Wednesday had the Oldtimers displaying some of their old memorable skills against their Raider opponents.

Manager of the Raiders Don Fendley said it was good to see the Oldtimers play such a spirited game of hockey.

Jack Kempshed can still keep up with the younger players with his fluid skating, Fendley said. Phil Lavell probably hasn't been on skates more than three times in five years, but he looked impressive as did Kent Robinson, Fendley said.

This year's Heritage winger Bud James was behind the bench for the Oldtimers and said the game was, "quite a good showing." James was impressed with Carl Hymers, Doug Tate and Blake Ingils.

Team of the week

Sportsweek would like to describe the origins to the team of the week selection and add some insight to the objectives of this section of Herald sports.

The team of the week coverage was added this Winter to give more exposure to the hockey teams in Georgetown. The coverage is based on an arbitrary selection of a hockey team.

Our policy is not to necessarily pick the 'best' team, but rather 'any' team that fosters enthusiasm. We do not want to monopolize coverage in any one hockey league.

We hope to continue this coverage in the spring for soccer and other minor sports in Halton Hills. The coverage of team of the week will not necessarily be a 'weekly' feature. With time and space restraints, it is important that our more newsworthy items take precedence over team of the week coverage.

Taking these considerations in mind, our sports desk welcomes submissions for team of the week coverage.

Ladies soccer sign-up

Young ladies and women, age 17 and over who want to play for the 1981 Georgetown Senior Girls Rep Team in the Golden Horseshoe League, are asked to contact Coach Lloyd Jones (877-7064). Previous soccer experience would be an asset.
