KNOWS HOLSTEINS

Here's Georgetown's Wally Knapp, who, as reported in The Herald two weeks ago, received the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada's highest honor, the Master Breeder Shield, Feb. 11. Seen holding the shield in this photo provided last week by the Association, Mr. Knapp is a former Ayrshire breeder who switched to Holsteins in 1955 and is still glad he did. Eighteen of the 40 animals that have qualified for the Shield were offspring of "the Nancy family", based on a sole cow, Nora Rag Apple Atlas, which Mr. Knapp purchased in 1956.

MP up all night for BNA debate

Brampton-Georgetown MP John McDermid lasted more than 21 of the 23 and a half hours the House of Commons spent debating the economic situation during an emergency session Dec. 18.

The MP recalls the "Great Debate" briefly in his latest riding newsletter, reporting that his turn to speak came at 1:15 a.m. for Dec. 19.

After criticizing the Liberal government for "wringing its hands" but doing nothing to stave off financial crisis. and chastising Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau in particular for not even sharing the concern of his fellow Grits. Mr. McDermid resumed his seat to hear other speakers address the problem for another four hours.

"I lasted 21 hours and at 6:30 a.m., took time off to have a shave, shower and change my clothes, and then returned to the House," he

'(Mr. Trudeau)laughs and smirks when he brings in closure and members genuinely concerned with the wellbeing of this country do not have the opportunity to be heard," Mr. McDermid said in his speech to the Commons. "It's a big joke to him. It is not funny to absolutely everybody," he noted. "They are part of the prices everybody has to pay. Parliamentarians are not affected nearly as badly as the majority of people in my riding. One of our problems is that we tend to live in a dream world up here on the Hill. Perhaps we don't go back to our roots often enough on weekends to find out what is really going on. I suggest that government should start doing that. If it did, maybe it would get the message."

Canada to Lebanon

DID YOU REALIZE that spare-time efforts bought an ambulance for Lebanon last year? Red Cross volunteers made handicrafts which were sold for overseas relief. The Assistance International and Domestic program assisted people in countries from Italy to Guatemala, as part of Red Cross' continuing efforts to relieve suffering throughout the world.
