WILLIAM ELLIS REAL ESTATE

Home of the Week

This fine country estate home in Erin Township is viewed from the drive. Fifteen of its twenty-five acres has been reforested with pine trees. Also included in the land parcel is a stream and a few acres of rolling meadows, for which the estate is named "Rolling Meadows".

Secluded country estate a showplace of quality

If you're looking for a real country estate, you just can't pass up these beautiful, secluded, heavily timbered 25 acres in Erin Township. The home is an excellent quality 3 bedroom brick bungalow, nestled in cedars and pines, overlooking a crystal clear stream.

The curved, stone drive takes you up to an oversized double garage in the north end of the home. A few hardwood "railroad tie" steps uplead to the front door, under a pillared verandah. Inside you'll find tongue-in-groove natural white pine flooring in the kitchen, hallway and dining room. Plush broadloom in the living room and 3 bedrooms is an added extra to the home. The large kitchen with spacious cupboard and counter room is a cooks delight. The living room is accented with a large 'Acorn' fireplace. Along with the three bedrooms, there are also two full four piece baths and a main floor laundry. A full unfinished basement would be ideal for a rec room, or a storage area. This 18 month old home is excellently insulated, and ready for your inspection. Call William Ellis to view this fine country home.

Long, low and lovely best describes this all brick bungalow. The built-in garage is on the far end to the home, and is large enough for 2 cars and a workshop.

The view from the back of this secluded home shows a large deck with a great view of the woods. A terrific place to catch the morning sun in the good weather ahead!
