

Sports in brief

Local b-ball All Stars

Two local players and a coach have been selected to join the team that will represent Halton East in the senior boys basketball 'Halton Classic'.

The Halton Classic, to be held Friday April 3, 1981 is a basketball competition where a select group of players from Halton West (Burlington) meet players from Halton East (Oakville, Acton, Milton and Georgetown).

Bob McClure from Acton and Shawn Hutt from Georgetown were picked as the players who, "best exemplify outstanding ability with discipline and unselfishness necessary for success in a team game".

Coach of the Georgetown senior boys basketball team, Morely Leeking will coach the Halton East select squad.

The first three Classics have resulted in a donation of $978 to the Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded.

The coaches of the top three teams in each division selected two players to participate, whereas the other schools chose one representative to bring the rosters up to 10 each.

The game starts at 8:00 p.m. and admission is one dollar per person. It will be held at Nelson High School in their main gymnasium.

Acton skating carnival

The Acton Figure-Skating Club will be holding their skating carnival this April 5th, Sunday at 2:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Feature skaters performing will be Kevin Parker, Susan Kinal and David and Cindy McGilloy.

The theme of this year's show will be "Holiday Hi-lites". Skaters will skate their routines to a theme of 'holidays from around the world' such as trips to Paris and Los Angeles.

For more information, call Mrs. Cosimo at 853-3888.

Burke spurs bowlers

ROBERTA BURKE ROLLS 1023
Roberta "Bert" Burke, on Sat. Mar. 21st, rolled a 1023 four game total, a 255 average, which was a life-time high for her. This was also one of the main reasons the Central Ontario girls' team came second in the Pepsi-Challenge High School Championships, only 25 pins behind the provincial champions from the Conestoga Zone.

Dwayne DeCoste and Gerry Bos as members of the mixed team in the tournament and coached by Shirley Chaplin, placed out of the top five ratings.

George Archibald, coaching the boys' team from Central Ontario, was successful in leading his players to a fourth place finish, only 128 pins out of first and the championship.

DECOSTE AND FISHER VIE FOR SUPREMACY
Lenard Fisher, after a late start in senior Y.B.C. bowling, is challenging Dwayne DeCoste for the season's high average of the league and the honor of being the champion of the boys for 1980-81 season.

Going into next week's play, Fisher is only five-tenths of a point behind DeCoste and will be seriously challenging for the lead in the rest of the season. Lenard's 909 (253-302-354) a few weeks ago, a very high plateau even for adults, was certainly a great effort and the main reason for such a close race.

Roberta Burke, the top senior girl, had a 220.7 average till last Sunday but now has outstripped her male counterparts. 'Bert's' 812 triple, 281-303-228, for a new season's average of 222 has now passed Fisher and DeCoste by 2 pins. Len Fisher is also a member of her league team and promises to put extra pressure on her in future games.

Tavern squeak past Rental

The battle between the two top teams in the Georgetown Industrial league began last Sunday as Hollywood Tavern from Norval edged United Rental 2-1.

In their first game in the playoff finals the two teams had to decide the game in overtime as Larry Peterson became the hero for Hollywood. Peterson netted the game winner at 6:14 of the first overtime period from Tom Gilbert and Dave Holmes.

Hollywood led up until mid-way through the third period on Ian Syme's goal assisted by Brian Beaumont and Bruce Lewis.

Support group general meeting

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Support Group is holding its annual general meeting and election of officers on Sunday, March 29 at 1 p.m. in the upstairs room of the Alcott Arena.

The present executive members have the voting power to elect the 1981-82 officers - president, two vice presidents, secretary, treasurer and coaching coordinator.

Fifteen committee members, nominated from the floor, are needed to assist with many responsibilities such as equipment, fundraising, sponsorships and gate admission, telephoning and publicity.

Any constitutional changes must have been submitted to the secretary two weeks prior to the meeting. Major and minor team convenors (liaisons between Tri-County and the GMHSO teams) and the ice convenor's job are generally handled by the vice presidents.

Major fund-raising projects such as the Hockey Conditioning Camp, dances and the Midget tournament require many volunteers to make them financially successful.

Head coach Bob Webster with two assistants will outline and administer the 81-82 season hockey program. There are still some coaching and managing vacancies in the roster for next season.

An area of concern which could affect player registration is the Select Team situation. Select League Commissioner Dave Smith of Milton must submit his 80-81 report to OMHA in April. His recommendations will play an important part in what the format will be for next season. Smith indicates that as Select rather than Second Teams, centres involved probably will be allowed to play only one game per week and attend only two tournaments. Monthly reports will be requested at the Tri-County meetings and possible suspensions or fines could be imposed upon abusers of the system. All interested parties are asked to attend and lend their support for the 1981-82 Rep Hockey Season!

Lakers outpace Nuggets squad

The Lakers tallied up an impressive score against the Nuggets Tuesday (March 17) in Georgetown Ladies basketball action as they outpaced the Nuggets 43-24.

Janice Gagne for the Lakers led her team with 21 points while Lynn Cartwright followed with 14 points. Gail Cartwright hit the hoop for six points while Dianne Mikoleit scored two.

Elda Watts had a strong game for the Nuggets as she found the range for eight points. Sandy Stansfield had seven points for the night while teammate Bonnie Brunton had four. Lorraine Brown finished off the scoring with two.

The Celtics managed to edge the Bullets in a hard fought game 37-34.

Fat Nessel paced her Celtic team with 18 points while Sally Remedios had a good game with 12 points. Shelagh Finn finished the game with three points while Gloria Sinclair and Brenda Sinselt both collected two points each.

Cung Kim was top shooter for the Bullets with 25 points. Linda Smith, Ann Usher, Maxine Kemshead, and Sandy Lewis each collected two points. Debbie Boycott gained a point from a foul-shot.

The Knicks were defeated by the Spurs 38-23. C. Vandevetering topped the scoring for the Spurs with 13 points. Mary Kelly helped her team with eight points while Ann Korzack added six. Nancy Shortill netted five points while Wendy Brown hit the hoop for four points. Susan Lee scored a point on a foul shot. One of the top scorers on the Spurs, Janet McKay was not able to play in the match due to a recent injury.

The Knicks had a good game from June Nicholson who led the team with eight points. Barb Curry followed with seven while Sue Tesar netted five points. Deb Barber had two for the night while Sjanya Young had one point.

could be imposed upon abusers of the system. All interested parties are asked to attend and lend their support for the 1981-82 Rep Hockey Season!
