WI picks Dorothy McLean

Norval W.I. met at the home of Gladys Chester last Wednesday evening with 17 members present.

The meeting opened with the Institute ode and the Mary Stewart collect, after which the roll call was answered with the payment of fees.

Marguerite Hunter read the minutes and reported on the 75th anniversary dinner, also the quilt draw, which was won by Gwen (Webb) Pawlikowski of Mississauga. A letter from the North Halton Music and Performing Arts regarding the bank balance was discussed.

The annual meeting took place with reports from all convenors which showed a very active and successful year.

The nominating report was given by Amy Burke and Gladys Chester, which was accepted as read, and Marguerite Hunter installed the new officers, as follows: Past President - Jean May, President - Dorothy McLean, 1st Vice Pres. - Amy Burke, 2nd Vice Pres. - Kay Wilson, Sec.-Treas. - Marguerite Hunter, District Director - Jean May, Curator - Gladys Chester and Dorothy McLean. Jean May, upon vacating the chair, thanked everyone for their support for the last two years, and Amy Burke moved a vote of thanks to her, while everyone showed their appreciation.

Dorothy McLean took the chair and asked for the continued support of all members. All members were asked to make either a lemon loaf or maple cream for the next meeting, where they will be judged and two members will make one to be at the district annual.

A social hour was enjoyed over dessert of german fruit cake and coffee, served by the hostess, assisted by Gesila Malchin and Lilo Dahmert.

Pinegrove Community Club met for their last meeting of the season at the home of Grace May last Monday (April 6) when 21 members enjoyed a pot luck dinner around a lovely large old fashioned dining room table. After a bounteous repast, a short meeting was held where Marguerite Hunter read the minutes.

Committees for two euchs were arranged with the Webb's and Thompson's on the first and the Wilson's and Claude McLaughlin being responsible for the last one. Further discussion on a bus trip, or a night out was left with the committee to finalize. Euchre was enjoyed and Easter goodies served as prizes.

Alan Harrop moved a vote of thanks to the hostess, and everyone said good bye till the Strawberry Social.

The joint meeting of the three units of Norval United Church, U.C.W. met at the church Thursday at 8 p.m. Gwen Laidlaw presided and Betty Johnston read the minutes.

The devotional was taken by Elaine Crawford's group, while her mother from Unit 1 read the words of a lovely hymn. Glen Laidlaw and Mary Crawford read the scriptures, and Elaine gave the commentary. Eleanor Hyatt closed the part of the meeting with prayer.

Rosie Laidlaw announced the sunrise service Easter Sunday, followed by breakfast at the church, and service at 11:15 a.m.

Everyone is reminded of the church Bar-B-Que May 30 at Huttonville School. Elaine Crawford introduced the speaker, Jane Webster, home economist, from the Dominion store at the Meadowvale Towne Centre. She reviewed the Canada Food Guide, and also gave tips on buying, and getting the best possible buy for your food dollar.

Lenore Laidlaw thanked the speaker and presented her with a lovely bouquet of roses. Lunch was served by Unit 1 and a social hour enjoyed.

Last week we forgot to mention one important feature of our anniversary dinner, and that was the draw for the quilt. Mrs. Helpleh, guest speaker, made the draw, which was won by Gwen (Webb) Pawlikowski of Mississauga.

Sympathy is extended to the Reid family on the passing of their mother Mrs. (Weir) Lizzie Reid Friday (April 10) at the Peel Manor, Brampton.

The fourth Forum which was held in Norval United Church Sunday evening (April 5) had around 150 young people from churches within the Dufferin Peel Presbytery.

This meeting was to help inspire interest for the Toronto Conference which is being held in Owen Sound, on the weekend of May 23, where 7 delegates from the fourth Forum will be in attendance.

Terry Laidlaw will be there as a leader, and tells us they have been given one hour on the programme compared to the five minutes last year.

Palm Sunday worshippers help greet four new church members

By WINNIFRED SMITH

There were many worshippers out for the Palm Sunday service. The Junior Choir, under the direction of Mr. Pinkerton, sang a beautiful anthem.

Four new members were received into the Church. Those received by confirmation were Gerald Clarke, Cameron Munro, Paul Volmar and Ursula Eckert.

Rev. Stiles gave a brief, but meaningful message especially for those who were just welcomed into the membership.

The Sacrament of Holy Communion was observed. Special music and the hymns selected for this special Sunday made the service a memorial one.

A beautiful blooming plant was placed in the Church by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts in loving memory of their little son Tommy.

There will be a Good Friday Service at 11:30 a.m. Special Easter music by the choirs Easter Sunday. First Sunday in May, the 103rd anniversary of the Ballinafad Church will be observed.

Members of the W.I. are out canvassing this month for the Canadian Cancer Society. If you have not had a caller, you probably will have in the near future.

Mr. Barker from Kent, England, is visiting with his daughter, Ruby Pinkerton, her husband Bob and their children.

Friday evening (April 10) the Community Centre was the scene of a large crowd. The event was a variety concert sponsored by the Hall board. Local talent provided the entertainment, consisting of musicians, comedians and actors and actresses. Paul Schwarz was Master of Ceremonies.

Appearing on the program were the Junior Choir from the Church, the Men's choir, the Ballinafad Cubs and the Limehouse girl guides. There were numbers from the Ballinafad Youth group, Ballinafad Christmas Carolers, and the
