

Junior Paul Bunyans plant Trees for Canada

Trees for Canada planting day is scheduled for April 25 for the North Halton District Cubs and Scouts.

Keith Mills is the co-ordinator for this major event which has been held annually for the past ten years. Scouter Mark Rowe, chairman of the Scouts Club, opened the regular monthly meeting at the Limehouse Memorial Hall April 15. Scouter Howe reminded the Leaders to be ready for the Huck Finn Raft Race on Fairy Lake to be held during the Acton Fall Fair Sept. 18, 19 and 20.

In the absence of District Commissioner Steve Thompson, Scouter Murray Harrison presented part one woggles to Leaders Ken Nokes and Ken House, both of First Georgetown, Stan Hancock of First Glen Williams, and Lorna Thompson of First Limehouse. Walt Peters of Second Georgetown also received his part one Trainer's Certificate. Scouter Brian Bush introduced Laurie Duggan of the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce who spoke on a new program developed by this organization, "Take More Pride in Our Community." Recognition will be provided by the Chamber for members of the Boy Scouts of Canada for special services which they choose to do examining "Why we have pride in our community." This event starts in May and continues until mid-June. Coming event for Beavers is the District camp for White Tail Beavers to be held at Orangeville June 20 and 21. Annual District Cub Camp to be held at Camp Everton Scout Forest Camp May 22, 23 and 24. The Camp Chief is Cubmaster Del Wood of First Ballinacree.

The explorer hike for Scouts will be held May 8, 9 and 10. Scouting Camp will be held in June. All Scouts were reminded to be practicing camping.

In 1980, the 4,000 volunteer members of the uniformed St. John Ambulance Brigade in Ontario provided over 500,000 hours of unpaid public duty. They serve at all kinds of public gatherings and sports events.

St. John Ambulance teaches courses in child care which are good training for baby sitters.

skills ready for the Canadian Jamboree to be held in July in Alberta.

Scouters were reminded to have the names of any boys who are eligible for awards June 8 to contact Scouter Elaine Hannah immediately.

The District Church Parade for Beavers, Brownies, Cubs, Scouts, Guides, Pathfinders, Venturers, Rangers and Rovers will be held May 31 and will start at the Fairgrounds and March to Cedarvale park for the service.

Scouters were reminded to have all their boys to get shovels and pails for Trees for Canada and dress according to the weather, ready to plant trees April 25.

Each weekend April 25 to May 18, the Mountsberg Wildlife Centre will be presenting an enjoyable opportunity to learn about baby plants and animals. Boys may invite their parents to this worthwhile centre.

KINETTES HELP 'Y'

Cheryl Lightowers (left) was an honored guest at Monday night's Kinettes meeting when she was presented with a $100 cheque for the Georgetown YM-YWCA. Making the donation on behalf of the club was Kinettes President Carol Pearson, who has been named the Zone D (Halton-Peel region) Kinettes co-ordinator for 1982.
