Mrs. John Brown was the hostess for the Girl Guides' party April 11, not the name printed in error previously. We apologize for the mistake. Helen Mills has been home a couple of weeks after five and a half months on the Virgin Islands.

Little Andrea Leferink celebrated her sixth birthday with a party for 22 cousins and little friends at her home April 23. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lister on the arrival of their little daughter Ryan Keegan April 22, 1981. President Mrs. Anderson presided for the Women's Institute May meeting Thursday in Limehouse Memorial Hall when 14 attended.

After opening with the Collect, we heard minutes of the previous meeting and Items of interest. Vice-principal John Kavanagh sent a note of thanks for the Halton County history provided to the local school by our W.I.

The W.I. and the North Halton District Scout Council are going to hold a joint auction in the Hall May 30 and a sale of baking as well.

The June meeting will be a pot-luck supper in the hall to which each member will bring a visitor, providing food enough for her as well. The ladies thank Mrs. W.J. Crichton for her mouthed chocolate goodies which they raffled for a tidy sum at Easter. Also thank you to Mrs. Ray Denny for a lovely decorated birthday cake for the Manor party where the W.I. helped to entertain.

A substantial donation was given to the local Scouts' trip to the Jamboree in Alberta.

Mrs. Booth sent her report of the 80th District Director's meeting in Milton.

Notes of congratulations, thank you or regret were read regarding the sixtieth anniversary of our branch which will be held May 14.

Mrs. Anderson served lunch after the meeting.

Leonard Burford of Richmond, B.C. and son Mr. Douglas are visiting daughter and sister, Mrs. Robert Debus, husband and family here.

Lodge tag day

The Royal True Blue Lodge has been given permission to hold tag days in Halton Hills July 9, 10, 11 and 12. The town's general committee Monday night endorsed the request.

WEAVINGS TO WEAR

Maria Jennings brought her colorful hand-woven garments to display at the Georgetown library Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Jennings, who has her own studio at 35 Park Avenue in Georgetown, makes vests, shawls and belts, but most of her work is in the form of wall hangings she does on a commission basis. READY FOR ACTION
