

See you at Bang-o-rama Monday

OPTIMIST CLUB

By Roger Gervais

BANG-O-RAMA '81 is this Monday 8 a.m. to dusk, and this year is expected to be our biggest and best show. There'll be a larger Midway, horse show, bar-b-que, western show, etc. This venture is put on by the Optimist Club for the community to come out and enjoy themselves, therefore we look forward to seeing you all there.

Last Sunday, several club members visited Ottawa and had a breakfast meeting with our governor-elect, Gaston Saumure. Others travelled to Morefield, Ontario, and visited with International President Lionel Grenier. An enjoyable time was had by all.

April 28 the 1981-82 election of officers took place:

President Optimist Bruce Totten, Vice Presidents, Optimist Richard Chambers, Optimist John Kesteloot; Secretary Treasurer Optimist Richard Malby; Two year Directorships: Optimist Harvey Clare, Optimist Jim Ferguson, Optimist Dan Scarborough, One year Directorships: Optimist Keith Arthurton, Optimist Gary Banks, Optimist Brian Getty. Good luck in your new endeavors.

A good note: visited with Optimist Dave Wooland Tuesday. He is progressing well and thanks everyone for their cards and concerns. If anyone can visit him during the week, it would be appreciated and help him pass the long days. Keep the cards coming they help also.

Several of our Twin Club Members from Indiana are arriving Saturday. A dinner is to be held at St. Alban's Church in the Glen at 7 p.m. Let's show them a good Canadian welcome.

The 63rd International Convention in Orlando, Florida, runs from June 28 to July 1. Several members are going. If you can make it, please do. We look forward to seeing you there.

Optimist Richard Todd is now putting out the bulletins. If you have anything for the bulletin, please call 853-0674.

May 23 is the third quarterly board meeting at Waterloo Motor Inn.

We wish to welcome Optimist Bob Lindsay and Optimist John Itamualarsingh, who were inducted into the club Tuesday night. Welcome aboard.

Trip of the month was won by Brad Ferguson to Bahia Inn in Cancun, Yucatan. Consolation prize of $100 goes to Florence Walkie of Etobicoke.

Suite of the month was won by Mark Noland. Guest speaker at our last dinner meeting was Al Grant of Hands Chemical Company.

For the plant and flower sale we have a complete line of annuals as well as geraniums at competitive prices. We also have a limited amount of potted evergreens plus flowering shrubs which will be sold at less than wholesale prices, so this is a good time to landscape your yard at a very good price.

Proceeds will go to further our youth work in town. The sale starts at 8 a.m. at the Parkview Road entrance, and will last as long as we have plants on hand.

'They shall not escape'

IN THE CHURCHES

By Bob Ollivier

Matthew 24:6-7.

Terrorism shows up in the scriptures: "For when people shall say, Peace and Safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape". First Thessalonians 5:3. The Pope is known as the Father of Peace.

It behooves us to be watchful and to ensure our soul's readiness for the coming of the Savior. There have been, are and will be many false teachers and leaders. Jim Jones was one such, and look how people followed him.

Matt. 24:11 states "And many false prophets shall arise, and shall deceive many". This is also the day of apostasy. Matt. 24:12: "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." As Christians, we are the "salt of the earth" and we should make others thirst for the "water of life".

Don't take the summer off, but make it a time to strengthen your faith. I realize that many churches cut their evening programs during the summer, but this should not be. We all need a break, but Satan never breaks, and terrorism never stops.

In many homes I have noticed a list of reminders stuck on the refrigerator. To your list add the name of Pope John Paul, add the concerns of the "latter days", and add your promise to draw closer to God. Read the list and as the scriptures say "Pray without ceasing".
