

A LOOK BACK AT EDUCATION WEEK

Mrs. Eaton's kindergarten had a full program of activities for visitors to Limehouse Public School's open house May 6. She directed the little people in three songs, a dance, a puppet play and a listening activity. Her climbing devices were the most popular items at the event.

Mildred donates her 75th

A number of area residents were honored by the local Red Cross unit Monday for making numerous donations over the years. Special pins commemorating their contributions were presented at Monday's clinic at Holy Cross Church in Georgetown, which was sponsored by the Kinsmen Club.

Mildred McIven is most deserving of the unit's thanks after making her 75th donation this week. Making their 50th donations were Anny Drischler, Kevin Clarke, John Wepruk and Glen Cooper.

Thirty-fifth donations were made by Gerrardus Bos, R.J. Paulin, William Cunningham, Robert Hooper and Gunter Eikermann.

Presented pins for their 20th donations were Gail Williamson, Mrs. L. Schertzl,

Mrs. S.A. Reed, A.C. Laviene, Ormie Carter, Harvey Handy, J.B. MacPherson, Geoffrey Newman and D.L. Pearson.

Making their 10th donations were H.F. Gilmer, P.A. Parker, Mr. Mitchell, Mrs. E.E. Watts, Mrs. C.G. Mallis, Mrs. C.Y. Mills,

Mrs. G.H. Ferguson and D.P. Scrase. The next blood donor clinic is Aug. 17.

Not all nations co-operate when Red Cross visits

The first formal visit by a delegate from the International Committee of the Red Cross to political detainees was to a prison outside Budapest, Hungary, in April 1979. Since then the ICRC delegates have visited over 300,000 political detainees in more than 70 countries throughout the world.

To the ICRC, a political detainee is someone locked up by his own country's authorities at a time of internal tension or disturbance because he is seen as a threat to the existing political system. Only the conditions of detention concern the ICRC, not why the detainee is locked up.

The ICRC asks governments for access to all political detainees, without witnesses being present. The delegates attempt to compile a complete record of detainees in a centre, which is in itself a form of protection.

There is no magic formula for the ICRC to use in order to bring about change in the conditions for political detainees. Unlike visits to prisoners of war in a conflict where at least two parties are involved in the negotiations, there is only one state involved with the political detainees, and this power has complete control.

ANNOUNCING A PROGRAM TO HELP COMMUNITY GROUPS IN ONTARIO WHO HELP UNEMPLOYED YOUTH

If your community group is interested in providing counselling to young people who have low educational levels or insufficient training in the fundamental skills necessary to find and hold a job, there's financial help available.

As part of BILD (Board of Industrial Leadership and Development), the Ontario Youth Secretariat and the Ontario Manpower Commission have created a program to encourage a community response to the special problems of unemployed youth. The Ontario Youth Secretariat will match local monies in support of a counselling service - up to $60,000 per year.

Are you interested? Would you like more information? Mail the coupon below for a brochure that will fully explain the program and qualifications.
