law. Rick Golding also received his Wood badge Part II. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Carlaw presented 15-year service pins to Walt and Mary Peters of 2nd Georgetown and five-year pins to Bryan Alder, Jim Phillips, Don MacDonald, Barb Murchinson, Ross Walsh and Sue Walton all of Acton, Ken Nokes, Bob Baird, Sheridan Butterfield, Bill Webb, Hank Marlin all of Georgetown, Dick Rock Limehouse, John Blackwell, Art Rice, Ted Von Zuben of Norval and Dave Shrubsole.

Appreciation awards were presented by Jean Belshaw to Georgetown Legion rep Tom Elliott, Georgetown Optimists received by Stan Nolan and Acton Legion received by Bill Inglis.

A special award was presented to Elaine Hannah by Ken Fintayson of Burlington. Other special awards went to Keith Mills, Jean Belshaw, Steve Thompson and Bob Barber.

Following the awards presentation, Scouter John Booth showed a film of the Venture Canoe trip. Lunch and refreshments were served under the leadership of Mrs. Alchin and Mrs. Owen.

Specially honored at the awards night were Walt and Mary Peters, who received 15-year service pins. The Peterses will soon be taking a leave of absence from their work with the Second Georgetown scout troop.

Bigger and better Highland Games

Whirling kilt, the haunting call of the bagpipes, dashing lads and fair lassies will be on hand at the sixth annual Speyside Highland Games to be held in Georgetown tomorrow (Saturday).

The games are the first of the season in Ontario in a series of games to be held throughout the summer.

Scots and diehard Scottish fans can assemble at the Georgetown Fairgrounds at 8:30 a.m. to see the first in a long series of dancers who will be competing throughout the day. The games continue into the afternoon, ending some nine hours later.

Typical Scottish events to be offered are the caber toss, hammer throw, shot put and farmers' walk.

The games will be officially opened once the parade from Memorial Park enters the Fairgrounds at 12:30. Honorary chieftain Henry (Mac) Shannon will be on hand to oversee the festivities.

The games are to be bigger and better this year. Last year, 24 pipe bands, 100 pipers and 400 dancers competed and the turn-out is expected to be even better this year.

In addition to the usual events and competitions, a demonstration of sheep dogs has been scheduled along with the not-so-Scottish sport of karate. Organizers have also set up a beer garden in the fairgrounds so thirsty spectators and competitors can imbibe of their favorite brew.

Admission to the fairgrounds is $3 for adults, $1 for students, and 50 cents for children under 12. Senior citizens will be admitted free. Parking is available at the fairgrounds for a $2 fee.

Auto shop issue

No significant increase in traffic along Draper is anticipated because of the changed zoning and, as part of the town's "site plan" control regulations, vehicle parking would have to be clearly outlined for the new business.

But area homeowner Dorothy McLean said she was disappointed Draper Street neighbors were once again joined together to oppose the proposal. "We don't want the bylaw changed," she told board members. "Why make a bad situation worse?"

People wishing to submit comments on the Danny and Son proposal have until next Friday (June 19) to send them to the planning department. A report from the planner will then be presented to council for a decision expected later in July.
