ARTISTS CONCEPT

TUDOR MANOR ELEGANCE BY L. & K. HOME BUILDERS

Construction is about to start on this exceptional home on a near acre lot south of Terra Cotta. The neighborhood is one of good homes and picture book farms, dotted with oaks and affording a long view of the Escarpment.

Of many fine features — the plan boasts a covered porch offering immediate hospitality to your visitors. The "U" shaped kitchen is central to formal dining room and family kitchen area.

The main floor family room with fireplace is dropped two steps and adjacent to the kitchen so the Chef is not excluded from the group.

Upstairs has open staircase, three bedrooms, plus master suite with two full bathrooms.

A guest powder room off the foyer on the main floor.

Top quality components are being chosen to build this fine home and you will be able to exercise your personal choice of colors and many components.

The builder's price is $189,000.00 and occupancy is slated for the fall.

If your family is ready for the country life — call us. Look over the plans and the specification sheets, then make that sound investment in your future.
