

MORE SUMMERFEST, PIONEER DAYS FUN

God forbid, but they resurrected the terrible "Ballad of Sonia Snell" Saturday night at the Old Tyme Music Hall. Neville Worsnop (front) and his gaggle of giddy gals (left to right) Ron Hunt, Gerry Eggleton and George Mitchell may spill plenty of ribs at the gale dinner-show closing for Summerfest, but it will never win the White Owl award for solid Canadian literature.

There were dozens of widely varied activities going on throughout the downtown core Thursday through Saturday, and the McGibbon Hotel's outdoor patio served as home base for many Pioneer Days celebrants. The hotel's owners, George and Nick Markou, and staffers Jessie and Sally Hayes catered to passing shoppers during the day, then hosted the big street dances featuring the Dolly Varden Revue during the evenings.
