

Busy summer at the libraries

The Halton Hills public libraries are joining other local agencies to ensure your children keep busy this summer with a wide variety of educational and entertaining activities.

As well as their regular film festivals and special events like bubblegum blowing contests and a visit from the Mountsberg Travelling Puppet Theatre, the libraries at Guelphview Square in Georgetown and on River Street in Acton will soon be launching several clubs for youngsters to join and revisit several times over the summer.

The summer reading club reconvenes Thursday, inviting children to board "the book boat" for a pleasurable cruise through at least 12 different books, the reading of which makes them eligible for prizes. You can sign up at either library and prepare for club meetings every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon featuring films, stories and "pop talks".

"Munch to the movies" is the attractive offer being made by the Acton public library every Wednesday through July and again Aug. 7 and 14. Bring your lunch and watch some films between noon and 1 p.m. Every Friday throughout July, the films move to Georgetown for 7 to 8 p.m. screenings.

The popular Craft Club for eight to 12-year olds returns to the Acton library July 11 and 25 and Aug. 8 and 29. There's a 50-cent fee to cover materials and children should pre-register.

July also offers bubblegum blowing contests at both libraries. They'll be measuring the biggest bubbles July 15 at 1 p.m. in Acton and July 17 in Georgetown, same time.

July 21 and 23 is the Finger Paint and Pudding Fun for five to eight-year olds. Pre-registration is again necessary at both libraries.

July 30 will be a special day. The Acton library has its reading club meeting as well as "Christmas in July" at 2 p.m. In Georgetown, the library presents the Mountsberg Travelling Puppet Theatre at the Cedarvale gym at 2 p.m. The puppets will also put on a show at the Acton library at 11 a.m. that day.

The musical story hour that starts next Tuesday for five to eight-year olds at the Acton library (1 to 2:30 p.m.) returns July 16, this time in Georgetown (1:30 to 3 p.m.), then makes way for August's Creative Storytime with Rose.

Youngsters seven to ten years old can join Rose to free their imaginations and write their own stories and poetry. Sessions begin Aug. 4 in Georgetown (four sessions at 2 p.m.)

Aug. 5 is the first meeting of the United Nations Club, which takes seven to 12-year olds around the world in 31 days through films, stories and crafts. The club will meet weekly at 2:30 p.m. at both the Acton and Georgetown libraries.

The puppet club meets Aug. 12, inviting would-be puppeteers seven years and up to make their own puppets and put on a show at the Georgetown library. Please register; cost is 50 cents.

Captain Bill James will amaze young and old alike with his magic Aug. 27 with shows at the Acton library at 11 a.m. and at the Cedarvale gym at 2 p.m. Please register in advance; the cost is 50 cents unless you've completed all 12 books in your reading club. Then you can get in for free!

The Georgetown "Y" will be offering Summer Aquatics in two sessions of ten lessons each. Session 1 will be held from July 13 to 24. The first week will be held at the indoor pool, from 12:15 to 1 p.m. and the second week will be held at the outdoor pool from 1 to 2 p.m. Session 2 will be held at the outdoor pool from August 10 to 21, from 1 to 2 p.m. Fee is $25 per session.
