

Lions in Brampton tourney

Pee wees downed by York, but rebound in second game, Sunday

By COLIN BROOKES
Herald Special
The Georgetown Pee Wee Lions fresh from two victories at home travelled to Brampton on the civic weekend to play in the 12th annual Pee Wee tournament.
For their first game the Lions were matched up with

HUTT PITCHES
The game against Rexdale began with Brent Hutt pitching. Both teams were held scoreless through the first four innings giving the spectators some excellent baseball action. The first inning saw Sean Milton and Greg Tuck come up with diving

Pee Wee Lion Kevin Lindberg catches the ball at second to keep a York baserunner at Bay. The Georgetown Lions were blasted by York 9-1, but they came back to play a good game against Rexdale Sunday. The Lions lost the game 6-5.

a strong team from York. Steve McCarthy started pitching for Georgetown and shut York out through the first two innings.
The bottom of the third saw York get started with two triples and a double before Sean Milton playing at short stop cut down one batter with an excellent infield pickup and throw to first base.
Brent Hutt came in to relieve McCarthy, but when the dust had settled York had won 9 to 1. Ricky Fisher was Georgetown's lone hitter with a double.
The loss moved Georgetown to the consolation round and a game against Rexdale.

catches to prevent sure hits by Rexdale.
Brent Hutt came up with a super effort on the mound in the third inning to strike out two batters and hold a Rexdale runner at third base.
In the Rexdale half of the fourth inning with two out and a runner at third, the batter hit a hard ground ball to the shortstop Sean Milton, who scooped it up and made the loss to first and retire the side leaving another Rexdale runner stranded.
ACTION STARTS
The action began in the fifth inning with the Rexdale pitcher leading the bases on three consecutive walks. With Mark Moody on third, Pat McCarthy on second and Sean Milton on first, Steve McCarthy singles and brings Mark home.

Greg Tuck lays down a good hunt and get to first, but Rexdale managed to force Pat McCarthy out at home. Scott Misener then sacrifice bunts and scores Sean. With runners at third and second Kevin Limberg hits a big double to pick up two RBI's and give Georgetown a four run lead.

Once again our umpire friend saw it different and the game ended Rexdale 6, Georgetown 5.

Well done team for a great afternoon of baseball.
With throw on the way and fuit in full flight down the baseline, it was going to be close. The first baseman made the catch, but Brent is there in time.

Levels change for Red Cross

The Learn To Swim program offered by the Town of Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department is the Canadian Red Cross Water Safety Program, however the program levels have changed.
The old Red Cross program was developed in 1946 and since that time, the needs of the individuals using the programs have changed. As a result, the Red Cross has totally changed their swim program levels as we have known them. The "New" Water Safety program level names and the order in which they will be taught, from non swimmer to advanced swimmer, will be: yellow, orange, red, maroon, blue, green, grey and white.
The new program has several advantages:
A) It is easier to understand the purpose and sequence of the items, as they are now categorized into four major areas:

1) Safety Education
2) Safety Skills
3) Movement Skills
4) Continuous Activity
B) The Safety Education content is defined in specific terms so that:
1) The instructor will know exactly the Water Safety content to teach at each level.
2) The Personal Assistants and Rescue Breathing areas are placed in a better learning sequence.
C) Strokes are introduced at a rate of one stroke per level. This alleviates the problem of having to introduce and teach 2 or 3 different strokes in one set of lessons.
D) When a stroke (except side stroke), is first introduced the maximum distance required at that level is 25m. Thus quality rather than endurance can be emphasized.

E) Although all strokes must be learned, the candidates have a choice of strokes to perform during the Continuous Activity.
F) Cold Water Survival and H.E.L.P. are recognized as important additions in the continuum.
G) There is an increased emphasis on rhythmic breathing as an important safety skill for gaining confidence, as well as a preliminary skill for learning front crawl and breast stroke.

H) Continuous Evaluation is recognized as the best form of evaluating the participant, realizing that individuals progress at different rates. A belief in Continuous Evaluation will help us eliminate the concept of failing and recognize the individual nature of the participant.
I) There are only 2 evaluation standards, Initial Standard and Advanced Standard.
