About the Hills Scholarship for Susan

Howard Wrigglesworth Public School teacher Susan Dunning has been awarded a $2,000 scholarship by the Federation of Women Teachers' Associations of Ontario. Ms. Dunning was chosen from a long list of applicants in the region for top marks in her extramural studies and was awarded the scholarship to complete her bachelor's degree at York University in Toronto. The award announcement was made at the Federation's annual meeting in Toronto Thursday evening.

Irish Setter fun

The Irish Setter Club of Canada is holding "A Tri-Setter Day of Fun" at Wynfield Kennels just outside Georgetown Sept. 6. The day's activities begin at 8:30 a.m. with registration and include judging in conformation, field and obedience categories, a raffle for a wine and cheese basket and the awarding of trophies and ribbons. Judges include Lou and Lorraine Smith of Cleveland, Ohio, who'll handle the conformation event. Bring your lawnchairs and watch the goings-on at Wynfield, located on Maple Avenue between Trafalgar Road and the Sixth Line. For more information, contact Joyce Snider at 877-9952 or Jill Angove at 855-6267.

Lend me your toys

The North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded will sponsor a toy lending library in the area for youngsters up to 12 years old, with special emphasis on those six and under and priority given to the handicapped. A Wintario grant and locally-raised funds are expected to enable the Association to "own" the library during the first year of operation, then turn control over to a special committee of community representatives. A location is yet to be chosen. Anyone interested in helping out can call the association at 877-5557 or Audrey Hillman at 877-4037.

A-QUILTING WE WILL GO

Ready for hanging in the children's section of the new library is the friendship quilt made by 16 youngsters enrolled in the children's section of the new library's Ready Club. Their nimble fingers were kept busy for two weeks making the squares for the quilt, each of which represents a book the children have read or some aspect or program of the library that they like. Leftover squares will be used to make cushions for the children's section of the new library. Giving a sneak preview of their finished creation are (front row, left to right) Scott Lightowers, Christy Lightowers, Shannon Neely, Colin Nicoll, Julian Vardy, (back row) Janet Morrow, Heather Nicoll, David Spencer, Thomas Spencer, Paul Johnson and Katherine Johnson.

A 47-year old Georgetown man was killed early yesterday (Thursday) when he was struck by a car while riding his bicycle on Guelph Street in Georgetown.

William Smeaton of Byron Street in Georgetown was riding his bike eastbound on the south shoulder of Guelph Street at approximately 8:30 a.m. when he was struck by a westbound car on Guelph Street at Armstrong Avenue.

Halton Regional police reported that a 1975 blue Chevrolet Monza driven by 32-year old Jorge Vicente of Toronto crossed into the oncoming lane and drove on the opposite shoulder of the road, striking Mr. Smeaton. The victim was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident by Coroner Dr. Ivan Hunter.

Constable Robert Ustrzycki of 11 Division in Georgetown will be conducting an investigation into the accident.

Time waster?

Herald Special
Although they attended an informal meeting Monday at the Association of Municipalities of Ontario convention, Halton Hills councillors won't be getting involved with the group complaining about regional government.

Mayor Peter Pomeroy said representatives from the town attending the convention all attended the special meeting but it produced little results.

"They formed a committee at the meeting," he said, "but it was a waste of time as far as I'm concerned."

He said a lot of "selfish" concerns and a lot of "petty" things were aired. Burlington Mayor Roly Bird also attended the sessions, Mr. Pomeroy said, and like himself was not impressed with the committee or the speakers.

OUR 'ALSO-SWAM'

O'ble, Georgetown's wonder dog, wasn't the only canine swimmer keeping Georgetown in the limelight at the CNE's Dog Swim last weekend. Taffy and her master Richard Thompson were also there ready to take the big plunge. At the moment, it seems as if they're plotting their strategy for the 100-yard swim in which Taffy went on to place third in a field of 30 other competitors. Quite a feat for an eight-year old dog swimming competitively for the first time.

KofC takes to streets for arthritis battle

Over 200 canvassers will be knocking on doors throughout Georgetown for two weeks in September as part of the Knights of Columbus campaign to raise funds for the Arthritis Society.

From Sept. 14-26, members of the Knights of Columbus, the Halton Hills Huff and Puffers Oldtimer Hockey Club and other concerned residents will be beating the paths of Georgetown and Glen Williams in their quest for $8,000 for the Arthritis Society.

Campaign chairman Bill Kent said it's the tenth year the Knights have organized a fund-raising program on behalf of the Arthritis Society and they already have many successful campaigns under their belt. Last year they raised over $5,300.

In addition to their residential canvassing, the Knights
