Cadet's red star for Dwayne

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
Dwayne Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Cunningham, received his red star certificate for successfully completing his six-week army cadet leader training course at Camp Ipperwash, in Forest, Ontario.

a plaque for runner-up for the best cadet award; his company "Bravo" received credits for the best sports company and B Soccer League winners.
He now hopes to obtain his silver star, which will enable him to qualify for training in the para rescue course.
His parents and grandfather, Vic Dixon of Brampton, attended the Lieutenant-Governor's Day closing exercises a week ago Saturday.

Sympathy is extended to the Wilson family on the death of Earl Wilson, a lifelong resident of the Norval district, who passed away Friday at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital in his 51st year.

Earl was a well-known and respected dairy farmer of the Tenth Line, Halton Hills (old Esquesing).
The funeral was held in Norval United Church Sunday Aug. 30, conducted by Rev. Walter Ridley. The large number attending attested to the respect and high esteem of those who knew him.

He served a term as elder in Norval United Church, as well as being active in Pinegrove Community Club and several Agricultural organizations.
His sound advice and good judgement will be missed by his many friends, and sympathy goes out to his wife Anne and family, Ruth-Anne, Norma and David, his father Guy Wilson, and sister Mrs. Harry (Ruth) Moore of Orton.
Congratulations to Sharon Robinson and Barry Dunlop, who were married in Norval United Church Saturday. They will be taking up residence on Market Street in Georgetown.

LAMB-DUDLEY WEDDING AT KNOX

John Dudley watches his new bride, the former Peggy Lamb of Georgetown, sign the register at Knox Presbyterian Church following their marriage July 11, 1981. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley are making their home in Mississauga.

Area band on top

The Chinguacousy Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Ken Meyer, which counts among its members John and Caroline Browne of Regan Crescent in Georgetown and The Herald's own shop foreman, Dave Hastings, was one of the big winners in the Canadian National Exhibition's annual band competition Sunday. Chinguacousy captured first-place trophies in three categories: Class 2 for senior community bands, Class 2A for junior community bands (international) and Class 4 for junior community bands, a category they entered for the first time this year having recruited several young players. Chinguacousy ousted tough competition from Windsor, Elmira and other communities with such selections as the Devonshire Overture, Los Valientes and Excalibur. Area residents can see the band in concert at Brampton's Gage Park the evening of Sept. 13.

Special service honors resident

A special service took place at Limehouse Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon when a set of collection plates was dedicated in memory of the late A.C. (Pat) Patterson, a former elder and clerk of session. Mrs. W.J. Henry and Tanya and Todd of Elsa in the Yukon, who are on a month's holiday here, were present at the service along with other friends and relatives.
