Village welcomes new minister, Tom Bandy

By WINNIFRED SMITH

There was a large number of worshippers out to church Sunday to welcome our new minister, Rev. Thomas Bandy and his wife Lynne.

It was the first day for Sunday school after the summer recess. Rev. Bandy called the young ones to the front. He had a special message for them before they went down to classes.

As he introduced himself to the congregation, his witty remarks showed that he had quite a sense of humor.

His sermon was most inspiring. It was based on "Love". Brothers love, rejoicing when others are happy, also sharing with them in times when they are saddened. First we received God's love in our own hearts, then that love will flow in our neighborhood and throughout the land.

Mr. Bandy's first message here was impressive. It made one think how simple the cure for a great deal of the world's suffering.

Lunch was served after the service. It gave everyone an opportunity to meet the pastor and his wife.

Almost forgot to mention that during the worship service a beautiful solo was given by Doreen Burt. It was enjoyed by all.

The Ballinafad W.I. paid a visit to Maple View Lodge Tuesday of last week.

Jesse and Ernest McEnery were present. They brought their violins and accompanied Eileen McEnery at the piano. Old time music was played. All joined in singing the old time songs. Some sacred music was also enjoyed. Grace McEnery gave a humorous reading. Jesse McEnery called off for a square dance.

We were entertained by one of the guests at the lodge who took turns with W.I. members for a waltz and a whirl around. She was just as spry as in former visits there.

The president said she hoped our visit had given them a couple of hours' pleasure.

A hearty vote of appreciation was responded to by the ladies of the lodge. A cup of tea and home-made cookies were served, before the group left for their homes.

The Annual Corn Roast and Dance sponsored by the Hall board was held at the Community Centre Saturday night. There was a good crowd out to enjoy the feast of corn and the dance with music supplied by disc jockey.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ron McLean who are the proud parents of a little son. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean are the grandparents and Mrs. Ada McLean the great-grandparent.

The new baby is indeed lucky as he was welcomed into the world by a set of grandparents on his mother's side, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Parr of Oldcastle, and great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Fendley Parr of Essex.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Knoepfl entertained for her mother, Ruth Burt, and her aunt, Doris Burt Saturday evening.

They were celebrating their birthdays together, being twins. Charlie Burt with two of their children, Sharon, and Brian accompanied Doris, also a few special friends of Ruth Burt's were present as well as other members of her family close at hand. An enjoyable time was held by the gathering.

Frank Smith, who was receiving treatment at Hamilton McMaster Medical Centre has been moved back to the Georgetown Hospital, where, hopefully after receiving more therapy he will get his strength back and be able to get home again.

We are glad that Agnes McEnery was able to leave hospital and is back residing at Maple View Lodge, where she makes her home.

Frances Buckrell has returned home after spending a few days with friends up north.

Keep Oct. 17 open for dance

It is with deepest regret we must announce that Bill Korzak died. Bill was a long-time member and will be missed. Our deepest sympathy to his family.

Comrades R. Wiggins, Roy Smith and Ed Shortill are in Georgetown Hospital, also Ladies Auxiliary members Mary Hunter, Jan Emmerson, Ann Collins and Maude Norrie. Car Club winners were G. Sargent, Vi Herrington, Bill McDonald, G. Hughes, Sid Clark and John Reyce.

Norm Eyres will be entertaining in the lounge Saturday night. Starting this Saturday our entertainment chairman will be giving a door prize picked from early birds who arrive in the lounge before 5:30 each week.

Most fall activities are now underway. The Monday night ladies dart league, Monday night men's crib, Tuesday night mixed darts, the Wednesday night industrial darts and the Wednesday mixed bowling.

Do not forget this Thursday is the L.A. General meeting starting at 8 p.m. and the branch general meeting and president's supper at 7 p.m. Sept. 24.

It was a busy weekend at the branch. Saturday afternoon the ladies catered to 40 L.A. members who were touring the area. Saturday night was the ladies birthday dinner and dance. Sunday was a zone meeting and the branch entertained 60 veterans from Sunnybrook hospital. Our ladies deserve a big thanks for all who worked in the kitchen, cooking, serving and cleaning up, also the ladies who entertained the vets with singing and dancing. There are too many to name individually and it's unfair to name a few but everyone who helped this busy weekend, a very special thanks is in order.

The Imperials are putting together another dance. Ian and Carol will be entertaining. The dances the Imperials have put on this year have all been good ones and this next one will be a dandy, more on this later, keep Oct. 17 free.
