

GBA's Day of Champions

The G.B.A. would like to thank the companies who supported the boys and girls during a great season of baseball. Our terrific sponsors are:
Optimists, Lions, Elks Lodge, Standard Products, Halton Credit Union, Nell's Music, A and S Engraving, Wally's Auto Body, Georgetown, Tire, Baz Motors, Armstrong Insurance, T-D Bank, LePage, Shopper's Drug Mart, J and K Enterprise, McPherson's Esso, Canadian Legion, Thruway Muffler, North Halton Sports, Nikki's Pools.

Junior T-Ball

The final standings for the Junior T-Ball league saw the T.D. Bank Blue Jays take first place with nine points, followed closely by the Halton Credit Union Indians with eight points.

The Elks Lodge Angels seven points over the season while the Canadian Legion Cubs trailed with no points. These standings came after the results of a double round robin.

Last Sunday Sept. 13 the Elks Lodge Angels defeated the Canadian Legion Cubs 44-38 as they emerged the consolation champions.

Scoring runs for the Angels were David Vander Byl, Jake Mashinter, Gregory Dawson, Jeffery Dickie, Gregory Dawson, David Vander Byl, Jake Mashinter and Gordie Buchan.

The whole Angel team deserves outstanding mention. Late in the second inning, a teammate was injured and hospitalized, so we dedicated and won the game for Paul Dwyer, a super little player. Due to health reasons, Debby Organ had to retire as assistant coach, so the Angels would like to thank Walt Buchan for taking over.

Against the Angels the Canadian Legion Cubs had runs scored by Tara Green, Chris Barrow (4), Stuart Curran and Kevin Spears. Triples were recorded by Tara Green and Kevin Spears while doubles were hit by Ross Thompson, Angela Akers (2), Erin Travers, Shari Loke, Brian Loke and Mike Travers. The outstanding player for the Cubs was Chris Barrow.

The Junior T-Ball champions were the T.D. Blue Jays after they won against the Halton Credit Union Indians 37-34 in a tight contest.

For the Blue Jays scoring runs were Adam Poyntz, Jason Ogden, Jerimiah Fendley, Greg Sinclair while doubles were recorded by Lee Ann Warner, Ryan Pirie (2), Blaine Kennedy (2), Josh Webster (3), Jason Ogden (3), Troy Gardiner, Catherine Ingram, and Brandy Chandler (3). The whole team was outstanding, according to the coach.

For the Indians Ryan

Shirk had two home runs and the whole team played well.

In the Senior T-Ball consolation the J and K Enterprise Red Sox downed the North Halton Sports saw the 24. Stars for the Red Sox were Larry Brenton, Michael Needham and Scott Friend.

The game was characterized by a super effort being displayed by all players on both teams.

Pee Wee

In the Pee Wee division the Nell's Music Cardinals emerged the champions against the Mets by defeating their opponents 29-9.

The winning pitcher was Georgetown Kent while Tim Vanderkoooy relieved for the last inning. Joe Wilkins was impressive at bat scoring two home runs, one of them a grand slam. Steve Cook had two triples while Jeff Kent collected a single triple.

Jeff Kent, Todd Walsh, Georgetown Kent (2) and Tim Vanderkoooy were the players hitting doubles. Joe Wilkins was an outstanding player bringing four runs on a grand slam. The whole team played good ball and the pitchers were excellent throughout the contest.

In what turned out to be an exciting and evenly matched playoff game, Shopper's Drug Mart Brewers edged past the Optimists Senators by a score of 15 to 10. Special thanks is extended to the team's sponsor, Shopper's Drug Mart for their support.

Tyke

The Braves eliminated the Thruway Muffler Rangers Tuesday Sept. 8 in a very close contest.

The game featured timely hitting and outstanding fielding by both teams. Steve Lee cracked a double with two out to bring in the tying and winning run and end the game 11-10.

The Braves, who finished in first place after the regular season, then advanced to the final game on Sunday. The other series between Nikkis Pools Mariners and North Halton Sports saw The Mariners tie the series at 1 win and 1 tie Tuesday Sept. 8 14-4.

Play resumed Wednesday night and the Twins were victorious moving one game closer to the championship game.

On Friday night the Twins and Mariners met in game number 5 with the Mariners needing a victory. A very close game was played but when the dust settled the North Halton Sports Twins had won and advanced to the championship game against the Braves.

Sports in brief

Mosquito Raiders finished

Georgetown's Soccer Raiders ended their season here on Thursday night dropping a 3-0 decision to the Brampton B's.

Both coach Nunzio Varricchio and manager Gary Lane were pleased with the way the team progressed during the season but were somewhat disappointed more success was not realized on the field. The team's final statistics for all their games played were 13 wins, 14 losses with 1 tie.

Also all those involved with the team over the summer wish to thank the sponsor, Athletes in Action.

Merchants' tight series

The Glen Merchants of the Intercounty Fastball League were defeated in their second game of the best of five series against Hillsburg 7-3 to put pressure on the Glen men to win their third match played last Tuesday.

As a result of The Herald's early press-deadline, the results of Tuesday's game are not known.

The Merchants were down early in the game against Hillsburg Thursday as J. Cunningham and M. Hurdie managed homers in the first inning of play. Merchant Andy Broadbent hit for a homerun in the eighth inning.

According to coach Bud Haines the Glen team hit with the Hillsburg squad pretty even throughout the contest, but the early lead by Hillsburg hurt his team. "If we can hold them down early and get a few more hits we can beat them," Haines says.

Skaters in Thornhill

The Central Ontario Section of the CFSA held its annual Summer Competition in Thornhill Community Centre with several local skaters competing. 600 skaters competed at this event and Georgetown skaters are to be commended for their fine efforts.

In the Jr. Bronze Division, Trina Wasylenko placed 6th in her flight, and Adrienne Lilly 11th. In the Senior Bronze Division, Tammy Morrow placed 1st in her Flight and 5th overall.

Sherri-Lynne Hawkins placed 1st in her flight and 8th overall. In the Pre-Novice Division, Sandra Percival placed 3rd in her Flight and 7th overall.

In the Junior Ladies Division Kirsten Mogg placed 8th. Well done skaters.

More Test Day results tell us that Leah Smealon passed her Paso - Senior Silver Dance Test. Well done Leah. The GFSC still has a number of openings available for their winter season. Call Mrs. Eileen Vaters at 877-9575 for further information.

Family twosome winners

Eileen and Cindy Kavanagh are a Georgetown mother and daughter team that just won the All Ontario Family Twosome Tournament in five-pin bowling.

They competed against 20 other mother and daughter teams Sept. 5 at the Plantation Bowlerama in Toronto. "I never thought we could do it," said Mrs. Kavanagh. "This was my first year bowling and Cindy asked me to go into the championships for fun."

"It's my fifth year bowling," said Cindy, 12, who joined the Bantam bowling team when she was seven.

Youth bowling begins

The basic training sessions of the YOUTH BOWLING COUNCIL of Canada at Georgetown Bowl have started and this will finally lead to formation of team competition for the coming season.

With most of the top bowlers from last season back and showing much improvement, plus the return of some who had bowled other years, the coaches and instructors are enthusiastically expecting to be successful in reaching the Canadian Championship finals.

Georgetown's "Jewel" Julie McCorry is determined to defend her junior singles Canadian title with concentrated hard work and has started with a 577 triple (249-212-216). Tracie Peggie, a former good bantam, showed with her 609 triple that she can this year replace one of the graduating junior girls.

Brinley Hole, starting his first year in the senior ranks, after a warm-up game began putting pressure on the veterans by rolling a 209 and 288.

In the bantam division, Barry McLean (479), last year's top bowler is finding hard work to stay ahead of Chris Somers (473) and Ian Wilkes (452).

All in all, with still more young bowlers to join, Georgetown will maintain its position in the forefront.
