Earl Wilson, Norval farmer

After a lengthy illness, William George Earl Wilson of RR1 Norval passed away quietly at the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital, Aug. 28.

His health for about a year had forced him into semi-retirement, when he disposed of his dairy herd last fall. However, he still maintained a keen sense of interest in all community and agricultural activities. His love for the land was deep, and he enjoyed his farm work.

Mr. Wilson was past president of both the Norval Junior Farmers and the Halton Holstein Association, director of the Federation of Agriculture and an active member of the Pinegrove Community Club. He was a member of Norval United Church, where he served as elder, and his quiet, devout attention to his responsibilities will be a missing link in all areas he served.

He leaves his wife Anne, daughters Ruth Anne and Norma, and son David all at home. His father M. Guy Wilson and a sister Mrs. Ruth (Harry) Moore of Orton. He was predeceased by his mother the former Jennie McMeekin. Funeral services were held from Norval United Church Aug. 30, at 2:30 p.m. conducted by the Rev. Walter Ridley. Pallbearers were his cousins George and Frank Wilson, Jim and Ken Reid, and neighbors

Ernie and Bill Alexander. Flowerbearers were his nephews, Harold and Brian Moore, Robert and Earl Moore, and cousins Tom and Bob Wilson. Interment was at Hillcrest Cemetery in Norval.
