

Geminis

provided the Geminis with their first win of the exhibition schedule. Port Credit finished second-last in their division of the Metro Jr. B league last season.

Geminis veterans Bob Dean and Ed Dwyer were noticeably missing from last Sunday's contest as they were both given one-game suspensions after Friday's game.

Leading point-getter for the Gems last season, Herb Kewley is playing hockey with a college team in Eastern Canada this winter.

The Geminis are still trying to lure former defenceman John Barnes back to their fold. Barnes played in the Georgetown Raiders Red-White game and scored two goals for his side. Former Gem Curt Fitzsimmons is working out with the Milton Jr. Bs this season.

It is a refreshing change to see Gemini players not playing in the game and those coming out of the dressing room after the game in dress shirts and ties. Even the coach is wearing a shirt and tie behind the bench which adds to the appearance of professionalism which was seemingly lacking in last year's squad. One of the team rules is that players will be required to wear a shirt and tie or a blazer and turtle neck to all games.

Bill Taylor scored two goals against Waterloo Friday as Rick Madgett, Bob Dean and Guy Cornier collected singles.
