

A GLT featured artist

Here's Connie

By MARG EGLETON
Herald Special
Go west, young man! Well, Georgetown Little Theatre's newest member did just the opposite, she came east (from Vancouver Island), and GLT is very glad she did. Connie Halvarson moved to Georgetown in January of this year, and has brought with her a wealth of experience to this theatre group. A graduate of the Banff School of Fine Arts, she has played in children's theatre, worked on improvisational drama, and was awarded the Yvonne Firkin Scholarship for best actress in the drama festival at Dawson Creek, B.C.

As Miss Tisdale, the secretary, in "Not Now, Darling", Connie runs the gamut from puritan primness to sexy siren, and finally brings the timorous Arnold Crouch to his knees. No mean feat if you know Arnold!

Connie lost no time in joining GLT. Why not subscribe now to the season's plays and help to make her feel welcome. "Not Now, Darling" opens on Thursday, October 15 with the annual benefit show, followed by a wine and cheese party.
The play continues its run Oct. 16, 17 and 22, 23, 24. Tickets may be reserved by calling the box office at 877-5407.
Subscriptions will be mailed, but tickets for "Not Now, Darling" must be picked up at the theatre box office by 8:15 p.m. on the date of the performance. Please note the new curtain time of 8:30 p.m.
All seats reserved.

Georgetown fall fair news

Talent time open to all

By BETTYANNE WELLSTEAD

TALENT - ANYONE?
After several inquiries from young people who would like to entertain at the Georgetown Fall Fair, the Fair Board has decided to invite those interested to participate in the program.
A special Talent Time, open to any individual or small group who would enjoy the opportunity to perform at the fair, will be held about 11:15 a.m. in Zeller's Big Top, immediately following the Pet Show Saturday morning (Oct. 2).
Folk singers, cowboy singers, magicians and comedians, or anyone else in the area who would enjoy entertaining, is asked to give the Fair Board a call at 877-0061 before Saturday. Officials would like to have names, phone numbers and a few details.

Talent Time will be open to all ages, young and old, and it is hoped that it will be a "fun time" for viewers and participants alike. If enough interest is shown, the Board hopes to expand on the idea in future years.
So, don't be shy! If you have some hidden talent, the Fair Board would like to hear from you and give you this opportunity to perform before the public. They advise that "participation in the Fair is half the fun!"

How's your karate?

YMCA has something for you

Herald Special
There is still time to register in some of the Georgetown fall programs.
The "Y" is offering a boy's gymnastics program on Wednesday evenings from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. for boys from six to nine years of age. Also, Karate for children, seven to twelve years is being offered on Monday evenings from 7-8 p.m.
The Georgetown Y's school of dance still has some openings in its Tuesday program consisting of kinder, pre-primary and primary ballet classes. The Wednesday ballet program has only a few openings left in its primary, Grade 4 and adult ballet classes.

It is not too late to register for men's sport and swim, which is held Wednesday evenings at Georgetown High School. Calligraphy also has a few spaces available on Wednesday evenings, for those who wish to learn this easy-to-read handwriting style. You do not need a natural artistic ability to master calligraphy.

The YMCA is offering a Life Planning (Pre-retirement) Workshop on Wednesday October 7th, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Through this workshop, the individual will discover various ways of how life can be enriched and expanded, especially towards retirement years.
A "stress workshop" which will deal with the recognition of stress and our behaviour under stress will be held Wednesday, from Nov. 18th to Dec. 9th. The cost for the four sessions will be $35.
The Y's Aquatic Program still has a few openings left in its children as well as adult vided to the audience as the group prefers to improvise depending upon their audience.

Mr. Gray had his pen in hand during the intermission scribbling out the program for the second half of the show, using a closet shelf in the dressing room as a desk.
Joe Hampson said Mr. Gray

Catch Travellers on TV tonight is amazingly good at timing. He can make up a program and rarely go overtime with it, he said.

If you missed the Travellers in concert last week, you can catch them on CBC-TV tonight (Wednesday) at 10, filmed in concert at Ontario Place during Children's Day at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto.
