

Wimpey's are lacking that knock-out punch against Dairy Queen

By TIM TOLTON
Herald Special

When Mohammed Ali fought Jimmy Young, Young gave him loads of trouble but his career as a contender was short lived, because he lacked the knockout punch and eventually his ability to counter punch let him down.

If Young was a football team he would be Wimpey's. Again and again they battle the league's heavyweights toe to toe but more often than not their lack of a big right hand costs them. This week they slugged it out with Dairy Queen for 60 minutes of splendid football only to take it on the chin when Jeff Lockwood thundered a 52 yard field goal to drop them 19-7.

DELREX WRAPPING

In other games Delrex wrapped up first place by indecently assaulting the Greeks 45-0. Mountanview beat Norval 34-8 and Fobert's dumped the Glen 21-8.

No matter how good your defense is, it's virtually impossible to guard against field goals, especially when Jeff Lockwood kicks them.

Dairy Queen and Wimpey's played an almost flawless game Sunday which was tied in the third quarter when Lockwood did his stuff.

John Halburton caught the only points of the first half on a 32 yard strike from Mitch LeBlanc. Wimpey's tied it in the third on a homerun pass from Dave Robertson to Dave Warman. That set the stage for Lockwood's heroics and it turned out to be the last word.

Mason two for the Plaza boys. Mason and Jerry Kelman caught two point conversions as well.

For Norval Randy Doucette had 6 and Kevin Neil 2. Players of the week:

Tracy Stevenson DQ., Randy Doucette Nor., Paul Allison Mtv., Terry Diardichuk SS., Mike Mieh Gr., Wayne Johnson Fob., Dave Warman Wmp., Kevin Brown Gl.

CLUTCH PLAYER

All good teams have a clutch player who comes up with the goods when he's needed.

Quite often he's not the team's star either, but he's appreciated by the players he plays with and against.

That man on the Smoke Shop is Terry Diardichuk.

In most of the Smokers successful drives Diardichuk has had his hand in somewhere. This week was no different.

The rust that has been forming on the Delrex offense fell off in great big chunks against the Greeks and it began to resemble the team it was in the early season.

The Greek's weren't helped by the fact that quarterback Rick Baldwin was "sucking in the seventies" in Buffalo either and couldn't generate much offense.

Werner Mikoleit had 20 for Delrex while John Vierra had 8, Jerry Neil 8, Diardichuk 6 and Bruce Cartwright 3.
