

Youth bowling up a storm

The McCorry sisters, Julie and Kelly, with late-starter Roberta Burke are still making bowling news. Julie, the 1981 Canadian Junior Champion, is priming for successfully defending her pinnacle by bowling another 700 triple-triple week running, a 712 (280) to keep a 237 seasonal average.

Kelly McCorry is still maintaining her lead at a 220 average in the senior girls' class with a 632 (255). However, after a late start, last year's leader, 'Bert' Burke is closing fast with her Sunday's high game of 305 and a 696 triple to reach an average of 217.

In the junior boys' division, Phillip Hughes is still keeping his lead by rolling a 630 triple for a 215 season average, but the return of Anthony Larsen is putting on the pressure. Larsen averaged 212 for his first day back.

MASTER JUNIOR QUALIFIERS FOR REGIONALS

After the final qualifying scores of the YBC Junior League at Georgetown Bowl, the following are the pairings of the boy and girl to team up with the Master Bowlers.

Julie McCorry and Phillip Hughes with George Archibald - Karen Doyle and Anthony Larsen with Joan Archibald - Tracie Peggie and David Hicks with Marg Bratkin - Kim Jones and Jim Carpenter with Anne Nicholson - Cindy Kavanagh and Daryl Maybanks with Christopher Burke - Judy Carroll and Len Magno with Shirley Chaplin - Teri-Jane Cowbrough and David Nicholson with Roger Gervais - Lisa Miodoncz and Mark Miller with Gary Hale - Cherie McElroy and David Varrichio with Grant Richardson - Debbie Pentecost and Ron Campbell with Wendy Chaplin - Lynn Norton and Marc Bassett with Andy Parent - Anne-Marie Peacock and Brent Osatchuk with Ralph Miller - Trina Bassett and Glen Kaiser with Gord Lane.

The regional finals are on Nov. 1st in Guelph and the Ontario finals Nov. 14th in Scarborough.

Greeks outlast Glen

Dave Smith finally got the Pizza team on the board with six late in the game.

MIRACLE WHIP

Apparently Glen Williams pocketful of miracles has developed a hole because they haven't had one in weeks. The score was closer than the play this week and the Greeks could have pulled away further had the need arisen.

John Karolidis carried the big stick for them grabbing 14 points. Rick Baldwin cashed in six and Mike Makovnyk two.

Bill Fournier turned Fred Astaire for 15 seconds and danced in for one Glen score while Mike Buck caught the other. Andy Tyrell converted both.

Players of the week: Jerry Neil SS, Bill Fournier GW, Mark Russell Gr., Steve Crossman DQ, Brent Ferguson RP, Paul Egerton MIV, Terry Hunt Fob, Doug Coulier Wmp.
