Intercounty Merchants advance

The Glen Merchants kept their Intercounty fastball playoff hopes alive after defeating Orangeville 9-5 last Thursday.

The final playoff round between the two teams has Orangeville leading the series three games to one in the best of seven playoff. Last Wednesday night at Glen Williams the Merchants were downed 4-1 after 11 innings when six errors took their toll on the locals.

Against Orangeville pitcher Jeff Haines threw well and collected two triples and one home run. Also hitting well for the Merchants were Dean Hancock, Graham Dearsly and Les Wilson.

The Merchants play their next game this Friday at the Glen Williams park starting at 8 p.m.

Our Novice Reps split week's games

Last Saturday the Georgetown Novice Rep hockey team were defeated by Milton 3-1 after Adam Hills gave the North Halton Sports Camp team a 1-0 lead from a pass from Duane Lewis.

However Milton came back and scored three unanswered goals, two coming off the stick of forward Mike Cox. Team observers said the first game of the season for the Novices was well played with good team effort showing from both clubs.

Orangeville 3
Georgetown 5

Against Orangeville the next day, Georgetown Novices had better luck as they ended the game winning 5-3.

After a scoreless first period, Orangeville opened the scoring on a goal 24 seconds into the second period. Then Georgetown's Sean Gustin got a goal from Stephen Brown and Adam Hills followed by an unassisted effort for a 2-1 lead.

Orangeville came back with two quick goals to end the second period scoring. In the third period the North Halton Sports team took the wind out of Orangeville's sails with a three goal effort.

Adam Hagen started the three-goal barrage off with his first of the game assisted by Stephen Brown and Sean Gustin.

Trevor Elnesky scored five minutes into the third period to give Georgetown a 4-3 lead on passes from John Cruiso and Bobby DeZeeuw. Stephen Brown capped off the game with a goal from Adam Hills at the 6:57 mark of the period.

McNally-Firefighters oust Oakville 13-0

The McNally Construction - Georgetown Firefighters Major Atoms hosted Oakville at their home opener Oct. 8 and overwhelmed the visitors 13-0.

The locals outshot Oakville 37-8 and their quick skating produced many 2 on 1's and 3 on 2's.

Georgetown had a very strong second period popping in seven goals. Goalie Curtis Green recorded the shutout.

Leading the scoring with hat tricks were Travis Gardiner (with a goal in each period) and Andrew Hoddinott.

Andrew Hoddinott with another hat trick (including a shorthanded effort in the third period) and Chris Stoddart with a pair - one a high backhand from the blueline at 36 sec. of the first period.

Other Georgetown marksmen were Alan Giray, with a wrist shot to the corner, Travis Gardiner on a deflection and Chris McCarthy who beat the netminder between the pads with only three seconds left in the game.

Brent Presswood, Jeremy Felce, Doug McDermott and Adam Bennett earned two assists each while singles were registered by Chris Stoddart, Alan Giray and Stuart Vogt.

The lone Dundas marker came on a powerplay early in the third period.

The other seven markers were notched by Adam Bennett, Jeremy Felce, Doug McDermott, Alan Giray, Chris Stoddart, Doug Kent and Brent Presswood.

Leading with assists was John Brooker with three. Two each were registered by Adam Bennett and Chris Stoddart.

Drawing singles were Kevin Roe, Chris McCarthy, Brent Presswood, Doug Kent and Travis Gardiner.

Despite the score, the Oakville netminder made several very tough saves.

On Oct. 10, the Atoms faced off against their Dundas counterparts, in Dundas, and came away with an 8-1 victory.

Leading in the scoring was

Cross-country Rebs take Oktoberfest title

By JACK HARLOW
Herald Special

The Georgetown cross country team claimed yet another victory by winning the second annual Oktoberfest Invitational this past Friday in Kitchener.

Not only did the team claim the overall school title, but also won the overall girls, and overall boys titles as well as four of the six divisional titles.

The midget girls, junior girls, senior girls and midget boys teams all placed first in their respective divisions. The junior boys were fourth in the standings while the senior boys were second.

SMITH FIRST

Doug Smith claimed his first win of the high school cross country season when he won the senior boys race.

Chris Ferguson was the only other individual Rebel winner of the day as he placed first in the midget boys event. Teammate Erik Hopkins came in nine seconds later for third spot, in this race of 247 competitors.

Others who deserve special recognition include Fiona Heaton who placed fourth in the midget girls race consisting of 156 runners.

In the junior girls event of 147 competitors, first year

Field hockey Rebelettes win twice

By HARALD BRANSCH
Herald Correspondent

Double victories were achieved by the GDHS senior girls' field hockey team last week in games Monday and Thursday.

In an away game against M.M. Robinson on Monday the Rebelettes demonstrated "strong positional play" to win by a score of three to one.

Notable performances were by Denean Jones, scoring two goals, a single goal by Elaine Hughes and the fourth shutout game for Donna Sedore.

In a home game against Perdue, Georgetown took their second win of the week winning by a score of 3-1.

Perdue is said to be Georgetown's biggest competition by a player.

Goals for this game were scored by Denean Jones who netted two goals, one of which was on a penalty shot, and Sue Wild. In net for this game were Donna Sedore and Erin McIntyre.

Georgetown District girls senior field hockey continue to do well as they defeated M.M. Robinson last Monday 3-1. Against Perdue Georgetown were victorious in a 3-1 contest earlier in the week.
