Glen Merchants capture crown

Last Tuesday night the Glen Williams Merchants captured the Intercounty fastball crown in defeating Orangeville in their best of seven game series. In a total team effort, highlighted by some clutch fielding from shortstop Rob Hatcher and third baseman Terry Wheeler, the Merchants totally controlled the momentum of their last game. Orangeville were the defending champions and the Glen were at one time down three games to nothing in the series, before they rallied with their backs to the wall in collecting three straight victories. The week before, the Glen downed Orangeville Friday after 14 innings. Dean Hancock poked a double which gave Andy Broadbent the chance to score him for one run. Broadbent stole home to give the Glen their other run scored in a 2-1 effort. Last Sunday in the sixth game, all of the Glen's runs were scored in the fourth inning. Mike Reynolds, Jeff Haines and Andy Broadbent helped advance the score to 4-0 with their hitting.

Mark gets shut-out No. 1

Two games last week for the DRG Stationery - West Insurance Juveniles provided two victories for Georgetown against Dundas and Bramalea. Last Tuesday the Juveniles defeated Bramalea 3-0 as Mark Didge came up big in goal, getting his first shutout of the season in his first game. Everyone played an excellent game. Kevin Stewart started off the scoring, on an assist by Ken Ward. Then Tom Cull took control of the game for Georgetown by scoring two consecutive unassisted goals for a final 3-0 win. Two nights later the Juveniles blasted Dundas 7-2 as

Ben Beckett played a strong game in goal for Georgetown. Jamie South picked up the first goal on a shot assisted by Kevin Stewart. Then Mark Palmer added another by Shane Lefebvre to make the score 2-0. Anthony Oram was hot, scoring a hat trick during the

Local Bantams drop two games

By H. GILMER
 Herald Special
 In their fourth game of the season, the Optimist Club Minor Bantams took to the ice against Orangeville and were subsequently outscored by their opponents 5-2.

Orangeville scored the only goal of the first period, but at the end of the second, Burlington had taken a 3-2 lead. Burlington then added five more in the third period to win handily. Although the Georgetown team were bombed by Burlington forwards, John Lantz had stopped 34 of the 42 shots in goal for the local team. Missing from the line-up and missed were Mark Pries and Mike Teetzal. Georgetown faltered in the third period as their opponents went ahead two more

MAJOR ATOMS
 Thirteen turned out to be an unlucky number for Streetsville, when they hosted the McNally Construction - Georgetown Firefighters Major Atoms at Vic Johnston Arena Oct. 17. The locals pumped in that many goals while giving up only three. Leading the scoring was Andrew Hoddnot with four goals and three assists and Chris McCarthy with his first hat trick. Tallying twice each were Brent Presswood (with two assists), Travis Gardiner (with one assist) and Doug McDermott. Adam Bennett helped set up four of the locals' markers while Doug Kent and Jeremy Felce assisted on three goals. Earning singles were Chris Stoddart, Stuart Vogt and Kevin Roe. Streetsville got on the scoreboard at 2:12 of the second when they were down by six. Their other two came early in the third. ATOMS VS FLYERS
 On Oct. 18 the fans at Gordon Alcott Arena were treated to a good display of skating and shooting when the Major Atoms hosted the Don Mills Flyers in an exhibition game. Georgetown drew first blood as Adam Bennett sent Andrew Hoddnot on a rush from his own zone and he beat the Don Mills goalie on a clean shot at 6:55 of the first. The visitors roared back to tie it up at 5:21 and got the go ahead marker at 7:38 of the second. Jeremy Felce tied it with a high shot at 6:26 of the third with assists from Chris McCarthy and Adam Bennett. Georgetown played with two men in the penalty box for a minute and a half and were able to keep Don Mills off the scoreboard. With an assist from Alan Giray, the game winner came from Brent Presswood who bounced his shot off the Don Mills netminder at 1:10. Adam Bennett (unassisted) ended the scoring at :36 sec. when he circled the net and slid in Georgetown's fourth goal. Goalties Sean Cotton and Curtis Green shared netminding duties in this game.

Candy Co. earns tie with Brampton

The Georgetown Candy Co Pee Wees combined a penalty shot, aggressive play and end to end action to tie their counterparts from Brampton last week. In an earlier meeting Brampton defeated Georgetown but a return match here last Sunday enabled the squad from Georgetown to leave the ice with a well earned tie. The Candy Co Pee Wees opened the action with the season's first penalty shot. Craig Nicolucci shot wide but spurred his team mates to tally seconds later with a goal by Danny Lane from Kevin Lindberg. Brampton tied the score near the end of the second but the "Candy Machine" were not to be denied with Rob McGuigan scoring from

Against E.C. Drury last Thursday the Acton Redmen girls defeated their opponents in both junior and senior games. Here, a member of Acton's junior team prepares to shoot with an opponent close by.

Centennial excels

For the first time Centennial will be entering teams in the age class Ontario Cross Country Championships in Burlington on Oct. 31. In preparation for this meeting 18 runners were sent to Dundas last Saturday in the last club meet before the championships. In the atom girls division Allison Irvine (running with one shoe) led her undefeated team to an easy victory over Unionville scoring an impressive 12 points. Jennifer Melville was a strong third, Tammi Morrow 8th and Jennifer Farley 18th. It was Allison's second win in four days following her North Halton victory at Kelso. The atom boys division saw another impressive showing as Brent Brass, Rob McGuigan and Jeff Amato finished 2, 3, 5 respectively for a 10 point total and another Georgetown win. Robin Cocks was a respectable 18th in the same race.

Burlington takes Midgets
 On Saturday October 17 Georgetown Sunny Acre Major Midgets went down to their first defeat after six regular season games. Burlington were the victors with a 6-4 score. In the first two periods of play both teams were evenly matched, with the second period ending in a 3-3 tie. Burlington took the lead with a goal at 9:31 in the first period. Kevin Gillespie, assisted by Tom Forbes and Howie Oram, tied the score at the 4:40 mark. Howie Oram put Georgetown ahead with another goal with 15 seconds left in the first period, on a pass from Blake Harrison and Kevin Gillespie. The second period saw two goals for Burlington. Sunny Acre's only goal was scored by Mike Stone assisted by Blake Harrison.
