Lee shows Novice heroics

Georgetown Tier II beat Milton 2-1

The Georgetown Tier II Novices under coach John Hew opened their season with two games last week. At home against Milton Peter Lee was the hero in the opener slapping in Jake Poulstrup's rebound with 23 seconds left in the game to beat the Milton netminder to give the home team a 1-0 lead.

Milton tied the game at 1:07 of the third to set up the exciting finish. Some fine saves at both ends kept the score low with Brad Tutt in the Georgetown net making several big stops.

Sunday on the road the Novices met a well disciplined Brampton club and returned home on the short end of a 6-2 score. Although the team looked better than they did against Milton, Brampton just had too much talent in this one. Georgetown goals were scored by Jeff Timmins from Mike Burbine and Peter Lee on a nice centering pass from Jake Poulstrup. Brad Duby played a strong game on defence for Georgetown.

The defence played strong throughout to keep Flamboro shots to a minimum with Sean Milton and Garry Butwell combining for the shutout.

The boys on the Candy Company Tier II team will be on the ice again this Saturday, Halloween, to treat visiting Milton with a few tricks.

Minor Atoms win fifth game of the season

Georgetown Development Minor Atoms met Orangeville Saturday evening, winning their fifth consecutive game of the season 6-1.

Mark Lorito started off the scoring in the first period, assisted by Kevin Usher, Wade Serjeantson scoring the second goal, assists going to Sean Gardner and Wes McCauley.

During the second period, Roddy Pasma tallied for the Minor Atoms, putting them ahead 3-0 assists earned by Wade Serjeantson and Wes McCauley.

In the final period, the Minor Atoms continued to Win ticket for entering contest

The NHL Oldtimers' game will provide the chance for any young sportswriters to have their opinion of the game published in The Halton Hills Herald.

Anyone wanting to participate in the Herald's writing contest will be given a free ticket to a Georgetown Chrysler Raider hockey game just for entering a story!

The Raider executive has promised that any budding sportswriters who take time to write a story about the Oldtimers' game Oct. 30 will receive one free ticket to their next home game.

For the winning stories, the first prize in three different age categories will include one new autographed hockey stick plus three father-son tickets to the next three Raider home games.

Second prize includes three father-son tickets to the next three Raider home games. Third prize is one pair of father-son tickets to the next Raider home game.

Winners of the contest will have their prizes presented at centre ice on the lucky date of Nov. 13 Friday when the Raiders play Barrie. Judges for the contest will be Paul Taylor, publisher of The Herald, Bob Hooper, president of the Raiders and one member of the Raider's hockey team.

In addition, each winner will have their story published in The Herald in the next week's or subsequent week's edition.

Here are the contest rules:

1. Applicants to the contest should write a story about the Raider - NHL Oldtimers' contest Oct. 30. The story should be printed so we can read it. The story should be no longer than 600 words.
2. The story will be judged on accuracy, imagination and interest.
3. The story should be submitted to The Herald's sports editor by Monday Nov. 2 at the latest.
4. There will be three different age categories where children may win prizes. The first age group is 6-8 years; the second age group is 9-10 while the third prize category is 10-12 years.

Flag Football finals on Sunday

By TIM TOLTON Herald Special
The short stormy reign of Dairy Queen as league champions ended Sunday when Foberts, the seemingly invincible playoff sensation punched out an 18-10 victory in overtime sending them into next week's final against Delrex Smoke Shop.

So next week it's the veterans against the rookies in the final. Delrex has been to the Oldtimers play tonight vs. Raiders

According to general manager Dave Kentner the team is looking forward to their NHL Oldtimers' exhibition contest this Friday. The GM says a new goaltender will perhaps get a chance to defend between the pipes for one of the periods against the NHL sharpshooters. Doug Dragatovich has been sought after by the Raiders and this former Richmond Hill Tier 2 and Concordia University player has been reported to have watched a Raider game and had his own secret practice at Alcott.

"We'll go with three different goalkeepers in the Oldtimer game," Kentner says.

Optimist Minor Bantams

The Georgetown Optimist Minor Bantams registered a 3-3 tie against Brampton last week. Both teams scored a goal in each period with Georgetown tying the game with just one minute and 38 seconds left in the game.

The Optimist Minor Bantams outshot Brampton 23 to 14, but the team is having trouble picking the corners. With six games the team is looking for their first win. At present the team has a lost 3, tied 3 record.

Against Brampton Mike Teetzel scored from Bob Klavkins to open the scoring for Georgetown. Then Mark Pries stole a loose puck and scored an unassisted goal in the second period. Jon Hammer from Brian Doherty saved the game with his goal late in the third period.

Hole-in-One club

1981 is Hole-in-One year in Canada. More aces have been registered with the Golf Digest Hole-in-One Clearing House this year than ever before in the 28 year history of the activity.

Every Canadian ace is inducted by Seagrams Distillers Ltd. into the CROWN ROYAL Hole-in-One Society, and will receive a CROWN ROYAL bag tag and certificate.

Some amazing aces have been scored in Canada during 1981. Stan Fesuk, a watchmaker from Stoney Creek, Ontario, used a No. 3 wood on the 234 yard 5th hole at the King's Forest course for his ace.

70 year old Edward Brook of Toronto smashed a four wood 208 yards into the cup on the 3rd hole at Donalds Club in Don Mills.

The ladies are well represented in this CROWN ROYAL event, too. Doris Isaac of Portage La Prairie, Manitoba aced the 114 yard 7th hole at Portage Golf Club with a No. 7 Iron. While her age is a secret, Doris is the oldest lady to score an ace
