32nd, Peter Brake, 37th, Devin Baines, 49th, and Doug Gillespie in 54th position.

The team's score of 77 was enough to grab first place, while the second place team trailed by eight points.

SMITH SECOND
Doug Smith placed a strong second in the senior boys victory. Smith timed 25:59 over the 7800 metre course, only six seconds behind the winner, Steve Wellum of Aldershot.

Following Doug from Georgetown was Jim McIntyre, seventh in 27 minutes flat, Dave Griffiths, 13th at 27:40, Glenn Britton, 17th at 28:40, Stacey Wheeler, 20th, timing 28:52, Scott Harris coming in three seconds later for 21st and Jack Harlow in 32nd position.

The senior boys score of 39 was 20 points ahead of Nelson in second.

Georgetown won 26 of a possible 36 medallions awarded at the Peel-Halton's and qualified 30 runners, the maximum number allowed, to the OFSAA (provincial) championships.

The meet is to be held this Saturday at Boyd Park. The Rebels are the defending champions.

Juveniles tie

The DRG West Insurance Juveniles tied Brampton last Thursday night. Paul White opened the scoring for Georgetown on a goal from Brad Nicolucci.

Then Tom Cull added another assisted by Paul White and Anthony Oram. Mark Palmer scored the third Juvenile goal from Tom Cull and Ken Ward.

Field hockey season ends

The senior girls' field hockey team ended their season last Thursday when they lost their first game of the Peel-Halton championships.

The first game of the match, which was held at Assumption High School, was lost to Mayfield by a score of 3-1. Denean Jones scored the only Georgetown goal.

Mayfield is said to have played a strong game while the Rebels' passing was weak.

The coaches would like to congratulate the girls on a successful year and wish them good luck.

Ladies B-ball

Ladies basketball action last Wednesday night at Centennial school saw some fast action-packed games as the Spurs and Celtics battled to a 38-36 game with the Spurs the victors.

Forward Barb Curry and Janet McKay paced the Spurs with 14 point efforts while Alice Ogden hit the mark for eight points. June Nicolson scored two points.

For the Celtics, Karen Chapman had a strong game in scoring for 10 while Sue Jameson found the basket for six points. Irene McCauley and Betty Simonyi hit the hoop for four points each while Elda Watts paced her team with eight points. Linda Leask and Corrine Vandewatering each had two points.

The Nuggets edged past the Knicks in a tight contest as Betsy Sharples scored 15, Janis Gagne eight, Wendy Forsyth four and Anne Korzack two points.

The Knicks had two point performances from Janice Cawker, Jennifer Linton, Debbie Barber and Patty Barber.

The Bullets outshone the Lakers 49-47 as Chung Kim paced her team with 35 points. Also leading the Bullets squad were Dalga Zelek with six points and Sandy Lewis plus Wendy Brown with four points each.

The Lakers got good shooting from Lynn Cartwright with 13 points and Joy Gwilliam with 12 points. Marilyn Dietrick found the mark with eight points while Sheila Scarlett hit the net for 10 points. Karen O'Neil and Melonie McCracken both scored two points.
