McElroy Bowler of the week

At the Town and Country Lanes, Guelph, junior bowlers from Georgetown Bowl won 5 individual trophies in the Master-Junior Championships. Although they could not combine with the Masters to win the team event, they did shine as individuals. Julie McCorry triumphed again by taking the high triple (flat) and David Hicks won the high single (flat) with a 260 game. Brent Oatchuk took the triple with the highest pins over average (plus 128). Phillip Hughes (plus 88) and Trina Bassett (plus 85) picked up the most pins over average in the single category.

In the team effort, the best from Georgetown was Shirley Chaplin with juniors Judy Carroll and Len Magno with a plus 194. The winning team came from Sportmans Bowl, Guelph - John Wilson with Camille Steffler and David Perry.

BOWLER OF THE WEEK
Cherie McElroy, YBC junior, rolled 9 strikes and a spare for a 388 single. Her concentration on a medium speed ball and a forward stretch in the past few weeks has increased her average over 30 pins. However, the excitement of the consecutive strikes and of her teammates threw her off at the end and caused a speed-up of her delivery losing her the 400 game pinnacle.

Julie McCorry, still kept her string of 700 games rolling by bowling 706 (249-197-260) on Sunday afternoon even after playing a tiring 11 games in a volleyball tournament on Saturday and her Master-Junior win on Sunday morning in Guelph.
