

'CHEQUE'-ING CYSTIC FIBROSIS BUBBLE

The Kinsmen and Kinettes Clubs of Georgetown recently added another $407 to the research fund in the battle against cystic fibrosis (CF), a crippling disease of childhood, and a visit last Wednesday from Don Crossley (centre), volunteer regional director of Ontario's CF Foundation, brought further inspiration to continue their worthwhile work. The clubs' meeting at the Lions Hall saw Mr. and Mrs. Crossley greeted by (left to right)

Kinsmen past president Bob Malcolmson, Kinettes CF chairman Sheryl Savage and Kinsmen CF chairman Don Mashlinter. Local Kinsmen and Kinettes annually raise about $2,000 for the campaign, using the fund-raising "bubbles" seen here. You'll find a CF bubble awaiting your donation at several local businesses.

Kinettes make good hot dogs, hamburgers, for fund-raising

Herald Special
The Kinettes Club of Georgetown has once again had a very busy and worthwhile fall schedule.

In September, the Kinettes year began with the club selling hot dogs and hamburgers to fellow Kin families at the Zone D baseball tourney at Hornby Park.

Georgetown's third annual Kinettes flea market was held the following weekend and, despite the rain, proved to be another successful fund-raising project. Also in September, Mrs. Jimmie Murray was guest speaker at the club's first general meeting of the year, giving an informative talk on educating deaf children at the Drury school for the deaf in Milton, where she used to teach.

In October, the club presented the Margaret Higham

1963 assassination film

Three days prior to the anniversary of the tragic incident, the Kinettes Club of Georgetown takes a cinematic look at theories behind the 1963 assassination of U.S. President John Kennedy. The public is welcome to join the Kinettes for a screening of the film "JFK: Theory of Assassination" Nov. 19 at the Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre.

Jaycettes to serve up 'olde tyme' buffet

Herald Special
The Georgetown Jaycettes will be hosting an "Old Tyme Country Breakfast" Nov. 22. In honor of the Year of the Disabled and in recognition of handicapped residents of Halton Region, the Jaycettes have committed themselves to raising urgently needed funds for Milton's Ernest C. Drury School for the Deaf.

The primary school is in desperate need of equipment for co-ordination development, while the junior school needs television adaptors in order to receive the benefits of educational programming which is close-captioned for the deaf. In the senior school, the children are being trained to use a telephone system, for which costly equipment must be purchased.

School superintendent Wollaston will be busy serving up a delicious "olde tyme" country buffet breakfast, cooked by the Jaycettes. The breakfast will be held at the St. Alban's Church Hall in Glen Williams which has been generously donated for the occasion. Breakfast will be served continuously from 8 to 10 a.m. When you finish eating, you are welcome to stay and continue to enjoy the entertainment.

All proceeds from the sale of tickets for the Nov. 22 breakfast will be donated directly to these causes.

The Jaycettes are planning an old-fashioned, fun-filled morning for those attending. Halton MPP Julian Reed will be strumming his banjo and singing. Mayor Pomeroy, Chamber of Commerce President Doug Penrice and Drury

Tickets are $3 for adults, $3 for children. Children four and under are admitted free. So if you've been waiting for a chance to enjoy some good food and good fun and want to support a good cause, THIS IS IT.

Tickets are available by calling Dianne at 877-8768 or Fiona at 877-3855.

Lioness Club update

Looking forward to parade

Herald Special
The October meeting of Georgetown Lioness Club was held at the home of Lioness Pat Mason with Lioness President Bev Goss in the chair.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by secretary Pat Mason. It was felt the Fall Fair booth had been a success and suggestions were made for next year. Lioness Lena Connors reported on final plans for the nearly new toys and sports equipment sale at the Lion's Hall Saturday. Leaflets will be given out at the plazas Thursday.

Lioness Doreen Merrill arranged for the lunch and help at the euchre party to be held Nov. 13 at the Lion's Hall. Members will be happy to pick up senior citizens. They may call Doreen at 877-8104 or President Bev Goss at 877-9790. Lioness Louise Giffin is a most welcome transfer member from Exeter Club. She will be taking over the correspondence with the two foster children.

Most members look forward to participating in the Santa Claus Parade Nov. 13. Lioness Lil Chapman is in charge of costumes and has arranged work meetings each week. An invitation has been received from the committee of the Acton Santa Claus Parade.

Lioness Bev Goss was congratulated on her award from the Red Cross for working on their canvasses.

Lioness Gail Laroche will host the Nov. 18 meeting.

Lioness Rita Zorge introduced her daughter Pat, who had come from Midland to present a most enjoyable program. Pat has her degree in Physical Education and explained her own philosophy on physical fitness. The members followed her lead in the basic exercises and steps of the very popular "dancer-cise."

A tasty lunch was provided by Lioness Doreen Merrill and Lioness Gail Laroche.

A CANADIAN INVESTMENT

Agnes Mary Daniel of Georgetown was invested a week ago Friday as a Serving Sister of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem by Canadian Governor-General Edward Schreyer at a ceremony at Notre Dame Basilica in Ottawa. The annual ceremony pays tribute to volunteers with outstanding service records in the Order and its two foundations, the St. John Ambulance Association and Brigade and the Ophthalmic Hospital in Jerusalem.

Ballinafad

Annual church turkey dinner feeds over 300

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
877-2000

Jesse McEnery was hostess for the November meeting of the Ballinafad W.I.

The president Reggie Slesoraitis opened the meeting in the usual way. The roll call was answered by each naming the flower of the month they were born.

There were several items of business to be dealt with. Grace McEnery, as convener for Education and Cultural affairs, took over the meeting. Eileen Burt gave the current events. Ada Kirkwood gave the motto "Pray For a Good Harvest But Keep on Hoeing". It was prepared by Winnie Smith.

Eleanor McLean had an interesting story about a disabled person. Grace McEnery had a good report of the area Convention she recently attended. There was a sale of crafts relating to Christmas or homemade decorations, the money from this going for welfare.

To end the program, Mrs. Robinson and her daughter gave a demonstration on flower arranging. Mrs. Slesoraitis then returned to the chair to preside over unfinished business.

She announced that "We have a new member: Helga Schwarz", who was welcomed into the membership of the W.I. The meeting then adjourned.

Marg. Jamieson, and Ada Kirkwood assisted the hostess with the serving of lunch.
