Akers-Clark hold top spot

Dale Mieczanec helped power his Akers and Clark industrial hockey teammates to a 5-2 romp over De Boer's Movers Sunday, picking up four points for himself and adding to the team's first place grip on the six-team industrial league standings.

Mieczanec picked up two goals in the contest and assisted in two others. De Boer's opened the scoring early in the first period on a goal from Pete Fendley assisted by Doug Barnes. Mieczanec responded 10 minutes later with help from Chris Milne and Doug Thompson closed the period with a goal from Chris Milne and Mieczanec to give the Akers team an early 2-1 lead.

De Boer's again opened the scoring in the second period, this time Terry Turner connecting with help from Dave Mercy. Akers' Scott Beckett shoved the puck to teammate Greg Bodnar for their squad's third goal of the game three minutes later. With two minutes remaining in the second period, Mieczanec scored assisted by Finn Arnold.

Doug Thompson picked up his second point 12 seconds into the third period locking up the Akers and Clark victory.

Beaumont, Syme and Mike Richmond.

Beaumont opened the scoring in the third period, followed shortly afterward by Richmond's second goal of the game. Bob Landry picked up his third point (one goal and two assists) after six minutes of play as Bob Inglis and Richmond assisted on the play.

Beaumont, Syme and Dave Homes finished the scoring to give the Hollywood Tavern the 9-2 decision.

H.T. WILSON INSURANCE'S ACTON!

Crawford Bell picked up a hat trick in this contest against Acton, rapidly putting his team ahead two points before ten minutes had been played in the first period. He tallied for his third goal with less than four minutes left to play in the third period, capitalizing on a play set up by Chris Broadbent and Brian McKenzie.

McKenzie played aggressive hockey throughout the game, coming up with a goal for himself and three assists, all on Bell's goals. He scored the third goal of the first period from Bell and Broadbent.

After a scoreless second period, Acton's Henry Toebes gobbled up a pass from teammate Ray Dunbar to put Acton on the scoreboard. Tom Davies from Mike Annosa and Bell wrapped up the game to secure Wilson Insurance a 5-1 victory.

Costume bonspiel Saturday follows sexes battle

The men were the big winners in this year's Battle of the Sexes Bonspiel.

The winner of the first draw was Bruce White and his team of Warren Micklethwaite, Mike Pearson and Butch Elster. Second place went to Eric Ross with Bob Smith, John Kitley and Scott Hunter. Third place was won by Julie White, the only female winner of the day, with her team of George Wild, Ron Perego and Tony de Hueck.

First place in the second draw went to Mike Geofreda and his team of Jack Massey, Brian McCourt and Paul Bagot. Second place was won by Al Dean with Bill Hunter, Al DiCroce and Jeff Wood. Third place was taken by Leo Ashcroft with Jim Taylor, Mark Perego and Rich Eastwood.

The winner of this year's Playboy of the year title went to Doc Russell with his Apo Woman outfit. Playmate of the year, again went to Theresa Smith, who was dressed as Irma la Douce.

Almost everyone got into the spirit of the event with a wide variety of costumes and a great time was had by all.

Mary Kitley, as usual, won the prize of the day: dinner for two at the Spot on 7. Some people have all the luck.

Coming up this Saturday is the Ladies Annual Glad Robinson Bonspiel. This year's theme is Western, so get out the western hats and polish up the cowboy boots. Sign up now for a great day of curling and lots of fun. There will be two draws each consisting of two eight end games with lunch being served between games.

Good curling and see you on the ice.

GEORGETOWN'S BEST DRESSED CURLERS

It was groups like this one which participated in the celebrated battle of the sexes at the North Halton Golf and Country Club Saturday. Curlers dressed themselves in some pretty outlandish outfits, the kind you won't likely see at this year's international Silver Broom. Coming up Saturday is the annual Glad Robinson Bonspiel, again a thematic event in which contestants are invited to dress in their best western duds. (Herald photo)

Raiders are ready

The Barrie Flyers head into town this Friday night for a tussle with the Georgetown Raiders, who (as of Monday) had secured top spot in the OHA Major Intermediate "A" standings. On Sunday, the Raiders travel to Owen Sound.

Don's Terry Mostaard scored the only goal of the first period, picking up a pass from Jamie Hansen. Mostaard scored his squad's final goal midway through the third period, again calling on Hansen and Gerry Milne for help.

Hollywood dominated most of the game, picking up three goals in the second period from
