Monday night on the road against the host Burlington Major Pee Wees the Candy Makers met their toughest opposition in the six team league. Georgetown was up to the task and skated to a well deserved 4-2 win.

Jimmy Manning from Mike Ross and Scott Duggan got our Pee Wees off to an early 1-0 lead. In the second period, Chuck Peebles set up Rob

Cooper before Craig Nicolucci with an unassisted goal ran the score to 3-0. Early in the third, Burlington narrowed the margin to 3-1 before Danny Lane with assists to Peebles and Kevin Lindberg restored the

The home side had a power play goal in the game's last minute but the outcome had already been settled.

Two short-handed goals helped power the Georgetown Junior B Geminis to a 4-3 win over the Thornhill Thunderbirds Tuesday night, at Gordon Alcott Arena. Although the Thunderbirds opened the scoring with a power play goal by Steve Tschipper (assisted by Mike McCauley), the Gems tled it up quickly as Bob Morrow dumped one behind Thornhill goalle Rick Reusse barely 10 seconds later after gobbling up passing play organized by teammates Bob Dean and Mike Tibbits.

Morrow pulled the Gema ahead early in the second period on a short-handed effort set up by Dean. Mike Tibbits widened the gap 3-1 on another short-handed effort during the last five minutes of the period as Riv Kennedy and Kerry Fry helped out.

The Gem scoring biltz wasn't over, though. With just under two minutes remaining in the period Kennedy picked up his second point of the game scoring on a pass tactfully organized by Mark Hamilton. But the Thunderbirds narrowed the gap 4-2 in the dying seconds of the period as Grant Davidson tallied against Gem netminder Mike Steer getting help from Troy Cadaget. As the end to end play continued in the third period, the Gems were held scoreless. However, Thornhill managed one more goal with five minutes remaining in the game as Shane Edgehill teamed up with Bob Caldwell and Tschipper to
