

Fire Safety have a five game win streak

In a game against Orangeville last Tuesday (Nov. 24) the United Fire Safety Minor Pee wees came up with a strong game to earn a 5-4 win and extend their unbeaten streak to five games.

After allowing one goal, the team rallied with four unanswered goals to run the score up to a comfortable 4-1 lead.

Scoring for the Fire Safety were Jeff Brady, Mark Shepherd, Peter Atherley and Alan Thibault, with assists going to Peter Atherley, Davin Ciglen, John Lorie and Trevor Harkley. This wasn't the end of the story, however, as Orangeville kept plugging away and eventually tied the game early in the third period.

Things were a little tense from then on, but the win was eventually assured on a goal by Jason Arnold assisted by Ken Langdon.

In the second game against Dundas last Saturday (Nov. 28) the team was a bit off its recent pace which had earned it a five game unbeaten streak and was edged by their opponents by one goal.

After allowing one goal in the first period, Georgetown tied the game in the second period on a goal by Trent Burton, assisted by Fraser Dougan. Despite valiant attempts by goalie Stephen Eastwood to keep the Fire Safety team in the game, Dundas attacks in successive attempts resulted in two goals. A late goal by Jason Arnold, assisted by Trevor Harkley and Donnie Cruise wasn't enough to catch up and the final score was 3-2 for Dundas.
