

Columnist Bob quite a chef, too!

Author of Ontario Outdoors has fun in the kitchen as well

The Herald's Ontario Outdoors and In the Churches columnist, Bob Ollivier, has been known to whip up a few delectables himself in the past, whether or not they featured freshly-caught or bagged game or fish. Here's a few from his personal cookbook.

One invents a recipe as one invents a machine or gadget. But one plays a recipe as one would play a classical piece of music, with care and reverence, its subtle nuances dictated by the mood present.

Special for Christmas and related festivities:

JUST AN IDEA, by Bob Ollivier.
EGG yolks, milk and batter can ruin a recipe book or card. Cover the cards with a sheet of glass cut to fit your needs. Tape the edges to prevent injury and lay it on the card or book. It will always wash, but your recipe card won't.
