Dear Santa,
I was a good girl so I would like to have MERLIN, please. It's price is $31.99.

P.S. I will leave you some milk and cookies.
Love Beverly Bridge,
Rosemary Road,
Acton, age 9
P.S. My dog would like a bone.

Dear Angela,
You're right, my dear, we have lots and lots of snow up here in the North Pole. But it would be cold, but Mrs. Claus keeps the fireplace going so it's nice and toasty and we don't feel it. I'm going to try and bring you some snow along with your presents when I come down to Acton. You'll like that won't you? Ho, Ho, Ho!

Dear Beverly,
Just between you and I, your doggie's bone is all wrapped up and sitting in my sleigh. As for your present, it's been specially made for you by my elves, and I can't tell you what it is because I promised the elves I wouldn't. I know you'll be very happy with it, though, Beverly.
Love, Santa

Bye for now, Santa

Dear Santa,

Dear Eddy,

I'm glad you like to play store. Maybe when you grow up you can have your very own store. To help you play store, I'm going to try and bring you a cash register and some goodies you can put on your store shelves. See you on the big day, Eddy.

Dear Tommy,
It's nice to hear so many young people are being good children. You know your parents have a hard enough time taking care of you without having to get annoyed when you step out of line. But I think you're one little boy who deserves some nice presents this Christmas. Have fun playing with your brother Timmy.

Love, Santa

Dear Santa,
My name is David Cripps. I live at 24 Ransom St., Apt. 101, Acton, Ontario. I am 4 years old. I have been a good boy, and I would like a train set, and Dukes of Hazzards, and a police car for Christmas. Think you can get these presents for me.

Thank you Santa,
Love David
Would love you to answer my letter.

Dear David,
Well, I'd love to answer your letter, too, so I guess we're both happy! Ho Ho Ho! Yes, my boy, and I'll try and get you all the things you're asking for, but those Dukes of Hazzards sets are going like hotcakes. In fact, I'd better go tell the elves right now to make up a lot more!

Bye for now, David,
Love, Santa

Dear Santa Claus,
And Mrs. Clause, elves, the eight reindeers, especially Rudolph. Is it cold up there, and does Rudolph still have his red nose?

I hope you know that I will leave carrots for the reindeers and I will leave you cookies, and milk. I have been very good this year. I wrote this Nov. 12, 1981 and I will still be very good until Christmas.

- This is what I want for Christmas:
1. A doll carriage
 2. Doll Tender Tears
 3. Barbie Camper
- I am 8 years old. I love you very much.
From Tamara Diardichuk,
Marilyn Crescent,

Dear Tamara,
Your letter really stood out in my pile of mail because of the lovely pictures you cut out of the catalogue. They let me know exactly what you want for Christmas. It sounds like my reindeer will have plenty to eat this year; I'm sure they'll really appreciate it! Bye for now.

Love, Santa
